ROPE OF PEARLS STOLEN FROM HARRIMAN HEIR

Mrs. C. C. Rumsey Loses $75,000 in Jewelry by Theft

Famous Necklace Part of Loot Obtained by Burglars

NEW YORK, July 28.—Gems valued at $75,000, including a rope of pearls worth $50,000, were stolen from the home of C. C. Rumsey at Narragansett pier during the 24 hours ending Sunday night. Mrs. Rumsey was a daughter of the late E. H. Harriman. The theft was made known today.

The rope of pearls was given to Mrs. Rumsey by her mother. Other jewels stolen according to a statement include the following:

- Ruby and pearl pendant.
- Gold pin set with magnificent ruby solitaire.
- Diamond brooch.
- Gold mesh bag.

Mrs. Rumsey's home was entered some time between 8 o'clock Saturday night and the same hour Sunday. Only the contents of one room, that usually occupied by Mrs. Rumsey, were disturbed, according to the announcement. Details were lacking at the office of the Harriman estate.

Mrs. Baills Reports Loss of Jewelry Valued at $5000

BERKELEY, July 28.—A string of jewels valued at $5000 was stolen from Mrs. E. S. Baills of 2500 Bancroft way last evening, when she left the box containing the jewels with her little girl at the Key Route waiting station in San Francisco. This morning Mrs. Baills, who is the wife of a local physician now in the East, crossed the bay in a renewed effort to find her valuables. After her loss last evening she searched the Key Route ferry-boat Yerba Buena from end to end for trace of the bag which contained the pearls and its thief, but to no avail.

With her little girl, Mrs. Baills was just returning from a visit to the beaches of some duration. At the ferry entrance last evening she stopped for a moment to telephone a friend in San Francisco before crossing the bay and left her suitcases and handbag with the child.

The time for the boat to leave ap-

Prof. Marvin Chief Of Weather Bureau

WASHINGTON, July 28.—Professor Charles F. Marvin has been selected for chief of the weather bureau to succeed Willis L. Moore, recently removed. Professor Marvin is now chief of the instrument division. He was appointed to the old signal service in 1884 from Ohio. President Wilson will send his nomination to the Senate probably this week.

Salvador Military Leader Is Killed

SAN SALVADOR, Republic of Salvador, July 28.—General Abraham Fardome, well known through Central America as a military leader, was shot dead today in the principal square of this city by a journalist named Arturo Gomez.

OAKLAND KNOWS HOW

(From the Walnut Creek Courier.)

The sterling quality of the citizenship of Oakland was demonstrated on Tuesday with the overwhelming vote of three to one in favor of five different bond propositions. Oakland will complete the magnificent city hall, build the handsome auditorium that will be the pride of the Pacific, and build her schools.

The result of the election is a glowing tribute to the caliber of the citizens of Oakland and it is the stuff that builds great cities.

Oakland is no longer the sleeping giant of San Francisco. She is a fast-growing metropolis and is destined to be one of the greatest cities in the United States and a leader among Pacific coast cities.

COMMITTEE TO OBTAIN VIEWS

Ambassador Requested to Tell Plans for Forcing Peace

House Member Proposes Joint Congressional Investigation

WASHINGTON, July 28.—Ambassador Henry Lane Wilson resumed his conferences today with Secretary Bryan on the Mexican situation. Wilson had expected to leave Washington today, but he remained at the request of the secretary to continue his extended report of conditions in the southern republic.

Ambassador Wilson, it was learned, will appear before the Senate foreign relations committee tomorrow to give his views of conditions in Mexico. Secretary Bryan was prevented from attending the committee's special meeting today on account of the conferences at the State Department with the Ambassador.

Investigation of conditions in Mexico by a joint congressional committee was proposed in a resolution today by Representative Stephens of Texas. Five Senators and five Representatives would examine all diplomatic correspondence and other documents relating to the situation.

President Wilson had no announcement to make today concerning the policy the United States would pursue toward Mexico, but there is every reason to believe no steps will be taken by this country pending the outcome of the plans being about peace.

The fact that some of the mediators interested in adjusting the differences between the followers of Huerta and Carranza were instrumental in persuading Porfirio Diaz to abdicate is encouraging officials in touch with Mexican affairs to believe that their efforts might bring about the resignation of President Huerta.

The argument the Mexicans are said to be planning to place before Huerta is that the United States, under no circumstances, would recognize his regime and that to extricate Mexico from its financial straits it is necessary to establish a new administration.

Charles Bissel and Bernard McDonald, the two mine managers held by Mexican federalists under sentence of death at Chihuahua, have been ordered released by the Huerta government. Charge Aligars of the embassy here so informed Secretary Bryan today.

It was said Mr. Bryan expressed gratification at the prompt action the

Seek Abrogation of Vaccination Laws

Initiative petitions, calling for an election to abrogate the vaccination laws in force in California, will be filed at once, according to Assemblyman George Galder, who appeared this morning at the county clerk's office to secure information as to the procedure for the circulation of the paper. Galder declares that the California Anti-Vaccination League is behind the move.

This morning Galder informed deputies of the county clerk's office that he would have his papers ready at the end of the week. "We plan to have a law introduced regarding the present one and

SMITH'S ATTORNEYS ARRANGING ANSWER

Reply to Bankruptcy Petition to Be Filed in Court

SAN FRANCISCO, July 28.—The attorneys for F. M. Smith, the Oakland millionaire capitalist, busied themselves today in arranging for the filing of an answer which will be presented to the District Court before the end of the week. This will be a reply to the bankruptcy petition filed at the instance of R. D. Hanford, one of the original promoters of the United Properties Company.

"There is really nothing that can be said for publication today in connection with Mr. Smith's affairs," said Attorney Peter Dunne. "I do not anticipate that the answer will be filed for some days yet. Everything is going along nicely."

A similar statement was made by Attorney Cole of Oakland, who asserted that there was no need of making any further declarations.

The trustees into whose hands Smith's affairs have been committed are still working along and holding their meetings regardless of the bankruptcy interruptions. So far the creditors have not been alarmed by the move made by the Hanford interests and Smith has suffered no embarrassment in consequence.

CAPITALIST FACES LAW AND TARES

Ponders Whether 'Tis Nobler to Uproot Them or Go to Jail

BERKELEY, July 28.—What bet! Harry Gadzooks! 'Sdeath and s'blood! Zounds! By muh halldom! Ha, foul caltiff! etc., etc.

How echoes of such blood-curdling expressions will fit into the modest courtroom of Berkeley is a question which Judge Robert Edgar is attempting to solve in advance of the first appearance on that stage of Richard Hotelling, clubman, capitalist and actor, who has achieved fame on both sides of the bay and at some extension therefrom, has run athwart the law by failing to skin the weeds from his Berkeley lots, and a notice of a warrant goes across the bay after him today.

How with any dignity a tragedian should comport himself in a real assault upon lowly needs is something that seems not to have deterred the Berkeley police from seeking his arrest. They have left to him whether he should lead the assault as Macbeth against the moving woods; whether, like Richard for a horse (and plow), or whether he should adopt the craftier ways of Shylock, lay his case before the court and fight for it.

At least some appreciation of the theatrical importance of the defendant they have not been so rude as to send a blue-coated patrolman across the bay warrant-armed. A polite little note has been written to the tragedian explaining that weeds exist upon his local property in riotous disorder; that a municipal law requires their removal; that previous letters have failed to secure their removal by him, and that a pleasant little warrant now awaits his arrest at the office of the chief of police if he will kindly call and get it.

So a practical world how to act—

KAHN TAKES WILSON TO TASK

Scores President for Scolding Former Dist. Attorney McNab

Democrats Forced to Allow Discussion Diggs-Caminetti Row

WASHINGTON, July 29.—The Republican filibuster, after paralyzing business in the House more than a week, accomplished its purpose today when the Democrats decided to allow five hours' discussion of the Diggs-Caminetti-McNab-McReynolds embroglio.

The Democrats brought in a report from the judiciary committee on a resolution by Representative Kahn of California calling for a telegram from the Attorney-General May 16th directing McNab to take no affirmative action in the Diggs-Caminetti white slave cases until after receiving further advice from the Attorney-General.

The committee report sets forth that the attorney-general had supplied a telegram which read as follows:

"McNab, United States District Attorney, San Francisco, Cal.: 'Please take no affirmative action in the Diggs-Caminetti cases until after receiving further advice from me. Answer. [Signed] 'McREYNOLDS, Attorney-General.'"

SENT ON MAY 16.

Accompanying the telegram was a memorandum showing it was sent by the attorney-general personally on the evening of May 16.

Representing the Senate the judiciary committee recommended that the Kahn resolution be tabled, since its purpose had been accomplished. On that point a unanimous Congress arranged for five hours' debate to allow Representative Kahn and others to discuss all circumstances of the Caminetti case.

Representative Kahn pointed out that the telegram holding up the trials was sent more than a month before Secretary Wilson asked the attorney-general for delay.

"Why was this telegram sent from his hotel?" he demanded.

"Did someone call on the attorney-general at his hotel and try to exert invidious political pull in having the case postponed?"

HINTS AT WHITEWASH.

"It was evidently necessary to whitewash the action of the attorney-general," said Kahn, discussing President Wilson's action in the cases. "Why the President saw fit to scold and censure McNab and at the same time adopt his policy of proceeding promptly with the cases passes all comprehension. McNab did right in insisting on the early trial of these cases, avoiding delay and the possible defeat of justice."

"If an insidious political pull was

FERRY SYSTEM IS WORTH MILLIONS

Valuation of Service Said to Be Losing Money Estimated by Company Engineer

SAN FRANCISCO, July 28.—That the suburban electrical property of the Southern Pacific Company is valued at $28,000,000 was the general statement of Assistant Engineer Pope of that corporation on the witness stand before State Railroad Commission during the hearing of the use of the East Oakland Protective League, which desires a reduction in fare from 15 to 10 cents from San Francisco to Seminary Heights. Heretofore a ticket reading Seminary Heights and Elmhurst has been sold at a 15-cent rate from this city, and a commutation ticket has been $4.50 a week. The league wants a reduction to 10 cents and a commutation rate to $3, as is enjoyed all over the system.

The chief objection of the Southern Pacific is that the suburban fares are the railroad commission said that this loss was based on the assumption by the Southern Pacific that the ferry system in its entirety should be operated at a profit. The commission, however, found that the ferry boats handle an enormous traffic from through traffic, and that the loss is not as great as the company claimed. The commission also found that the ferry boats are a valuable asset to the city, and that the loss is not as great as the company claimed. Mrs. Ballis found a police officer nearby and rushed with him and her daughter upon the Yerba Buena just as it was about to quit the slip. They searched among the passengers of the ferryboat from end to end in an effort to catch sight of the bag, but in vain, despite the assistance that several passengers rendered them. The police

"The pearls I had taken with me upon leaving home for safe-keeping," declared Mrs. Ballis this morning. "They were the gift to me of wealthy friends some time ago, and although I had never had them appraised, we valued them at $5000. Besides the pearls, I had a real gold mesh bag in the bag and a small gold mesh bag in the bag and silver. Just how much I do not know. There were some other articles of less value also, but the disappearance of the pearls and the gold mesh bag is the most regrettable part of my loss."

"Baby" Ballis, the little daughter of Mrs. Ballis, saw no one near her mother's possessions when she went to summon her from the telephone booth. The police have almost no clue so far upon which to work. Mrs. Ballis resides at the El Grandito apartments at 2500 Bancroft way.

Poultry-Raiser Alleges Property

George R. Walker, after he attempted to raise chickens on a ranch he purchased, found he could not even with an incubator, and now wants his money back. Walker, who is a poultry raiser, is suing the De Armond Beaud Land Company, formerly known as Hargrave, Judson and Beaud.

The complaint sets forth that on June 15, 1932, Walker purchased from the company a tract of land at 2000 So. 10th street, San Francisco.

The plaintiff says he installed chicken houses and incubators, and then when a flood came, found that the land did not drain. His place became, he says, a sea of mud. He further says the soil will not raise fruit or vegetables as represented.

Walter Christie and F. J. Kierce are attorneys for the plaintiff.

being successfully used to cause the attorney-general to order a postponement of the cases, why should the censure not have fallen on the shoulders of the attorney-general?

"Instead of having been blamed and condemned, McNab should have been commended by the President of the United States. If the President had called on him to withdraw his resignation and proceed with the trial of these cases he would have made himself infinitely stronger with his

TWO KINDS OF LAWS.

"It has been believed by the masses that there is one kind of law for the rich and the politically powerful in this country and another kind of law for the poor and weak. The action of the department in the Diggs-Caminetti cases and the Western Fuel Company cases would seem to stamp these charges as true."

"McNab did the country a signal service when he refused to be a party to a program that would have given vermin to the state, the statement that Diggs, Caminetti and the Western Fuel Company directors, being rich or politically powerful, could secure delay and thus possibly defeat justice."

Representative McKellar of Tennessee, one of the Democrats who steadfastly opposed discussion of the case, characterized Representative Kahn's speech as "political harangue" and declared that "every member is disappointed by the failure of the gentleman from California to produce that evidence which we all expected."

"The house was wasting time spending five hours discussing so inconsequential matter of petty politics," he declared.

MOREYNOLDS IN DENIAL.

Attorney-General McReynolds today issued an emphatic denial of published reports that he had conspired with the Mann white slave act in such manner that the Diggs-Caminetti cases might not be brought to trial or that he had instructed United States attorneys to confine the enforcement of the law to cases of commercialized vice.

"These statements are wholly incorrect," said the attorney-general. He said he had not even been consulted on the law which would interfere with prosecution of the Diggs-Caminetti cases set for trial August 6.

Representative Diggs of Texas called Representative Kahn to account for engaging in a "small, infinitesimal piece of muck-raking."

"It is bad enough," said he, "when we open our committee rooms to a cheap slave like McNab, but now the gentleman from California wants to turn the halls of Congress and the columns of the daily press to a little scandal way out in California."

Progressive Leader Murdock assailed the conduct of Attorney-General McReynolds in the Western Fuel Company case, as did Representative Kelly of Pennsylvania.

Diggs-Caminetti Case to Be Called

SAN FRANCISCO, July 29.—Maurice L. Diggs and Drew Caminetti, son of Immigration Commissioner Caminetti, will appear in the United States District Court tomorrow to answer to a charge of conspiracy to commit a crime. This morning their attorneys, Robert T. Devlin, Nat. Coghlin and Marshall B. Woodward of this city, and Luke H. Smith of Sacramento, were in court in connection with the case. In court the cases would be called.

Special Prosecutor Matt Sullivan has set the white slave charge against the two young men for August 5, on which day they will be brought to trial. It is that case they are accused of clopping to Nevada with Marjorie Worthington and Lola Norris and deserting their wives and families. The indictment merely accuses them of conspiracy to commit the above named offense and it is thought a continuance will be made until after the white slave charges will be disposed of.

Bick on the ground of illness. One hour and a half later he was dead. Bernal, who was 41 years old, was appointed patrolman, October 12, 1906. He lived with his wife at 274 Valencien street. And he was not completely fit when he reported on duty at 3:45 yesterday. At 11:30 when he staggered into the station his condition appeared to be serious and he was sent home. The immediate cause of death is unknown.

EL PASO, Texas, July 29.—On account of the destruction of telegraphic and railroad communication between Juarez and Chihuahua, American Consul Thomas D. Edwards is arranging to send a special automobile courier to Chihuahua with dispatches for City. Consul Edwards says he knows nothing of the contents of the dispatches, as they are in state department cipher.

No news has been received here or by Consul Edwards since July 25 of the two mine massacres, Charles Russell and Bernard J. MacDonald, who have been prisoners of General Pascual Orozco's forces since early last week. No motive for their arrest has been ascertained.

Agent Leaves With Orders for Letcher

EL PASO, July 29.—Edwin C. Bryan, a secret agent of the United States government, left El Paso today for Chihuahua City, Mexico, bearing code messages for United States Consul Marion Letcher. The code messages for Consul Letcher are supposed to refer to Russell and MacDonald, Americans held in prison by the Mexican federalists in Chihuahua.

Fort Bliss officials had received up to noon no confirmation of the report that Francisco Villa had broken camp at Ascension and begun to move his rebel army in closer to Juarez.

General Francisco Castro, commanding the Juarez garrison, received an official report from Chihuahua this morning that Pascual Orozco and a force of federal irregular troops had been started west from Chihuahua repairing the Mexico Northwestern railroad to Madera so that the Americans in the lumber town can be taken to the state capital.

FEDERALS PURSUE BANDITS.

WASHINGTON, July 29.—Reports to the state department today said that vigorous measures were being taken by Mexican federal soldiers dispatched to capture the rascals who sacked the American plantations in the vicinity of Frontera. YOUNG CHILDREN LEFT DESTITUTE BY PARENTS

Babes Abandoned in Apartment by Pair, Who Sail North

Younsters Are Being Cared for by Residents in House

Destitute and in rags, three children are crying for their mother, Mrs. O. F. Vail, who resided at the Hermosa Vista apartment house, 1530 Grove street and with her husband left her little ones alone in a room at that address, when they sailed yesterday noon for Seattle, where they will remain indefinitely without communication to the children.

The house that she had left, she trusted to her mercy to care for the tots, whom the landlady, Mrs. G. L. Hoffman, has fed since yesterday.

This morning Mrs. Hoffman received a post-card from Mrs. Vail in which she stated that she and her husband had left for the north, where Vail would seek employment. The message announced that the couple would cover the fare of Mrs. Vail, while he worked his passage to the northern city. Vail is a father and had been without work for a number of weeks. A friend of the family, A. R. Stone, who lives at the Astor House in this city, told the Hoffman that Mrs. Vail had written to him and had requested him to place the girls in a home as they were unable to care for them properly.

CHILDREN WITHOUT FOOD.

The oldest child, Mary, who is 7 years of age, Zola, 5 years, and the baby, Aida, 3 years, were discovered by the landlady last evening about 6 o'clock without food and with tears streaming down their cheeks, crying for their mother. The seven-year-old girl had charge of her two sisters, whom she endeavored to pacify by saying "Mamma will come home soon, don't cry."

In the role of the Good Samaritan, Mrs. Hoffman appeared in the room in time to comfort the aching little hearts and supply the evening meal. She sang the youngsters to sleep and bright and early this morning she prepared and fed them.

The case was reported to the Detention Home and it is expected that a home will be found for them.

The youngsters are all in perfect health. They are intelligent tots and will appreciate a home in wholesome environment.

SLEPT ON FLOOR.

Three weeks ago Mrs. Vail and her children arrived in Oakland from Los Angeles. They followed Vail, who had come here about a month before his family, and had only reserved a room for himself at the Hermosa Vista, according to the statement of Mrs. Hoffman. The room is 12x12 feet in size and has for the past three weeks accommodated the entire family. The two oldest girls slept on the floor, while their parents and the baby were tucked in a bed.

Mrs. Vail had left Mary with 15 cents with which to buy the evening meal. She had ordered the girl to go to De Fremery Park playground with the children and return at 4 o'clock, which she did. Upon arriving home the children found a vacant room with rubbish heaped upon the floor and nothing to eat. They cried for their parents but in vain.

Mary had been told by her mother that she would be home in time to feed them. "The children are in need of clothing," said Mrs. Hoffman, while sewing a rent in one of the baby's dresses in the apartment. "They haven't even stockings."

RENT UNPAID.

"My sympathy goes to Mrs. Vail, who tried to live on a very small sum, but still one for their room rent, but I cannot expect the child," they will probably be taken care of. I've done all in my power to console them and I think they are better off now."

Residents of the Hermosa Vista Apartments are conveying food and articles to the destitute ones and trying to amuse them.

HUSBAND'S SOUL WASN'T HIS OWN

SAN FRANCISCO, July 29.—Mysterious voices through a speaking tube preceded by a wild and harrowing whistle are reminders of a mysterious divorce to Ethel Fribble Lynch in an action filed today against Christopher Martin Lynch, an actor. When responding to the signal and placing her ear to the receiver in her apartment, Mrs. Lynch alleges that she receives this message from a mysterious voice: "Tell your husband, with my love, that I have got his soul."

At other times, according to the complaint, strange women have approached Mrs. Lynch and asked about her husband, and she is of the opinion that he influenced their appearance. She asks for substantial alimony for the support of herself and her four children.

SECRETARY OF WAR GARRISON, WHO IS COMING HERE TO INSPECT COAST DEFENSES IN CENTRAL CALIFORNIA.

DEL MONTE, July 29.—Secretary of War Garrison and General Leonard Wood left late this afternoon for San Francisco, where they will inspect the United States military base at that point. In the party were Major-General Aleshaire of the quarter-master's department and Captain S. J. Bayard Schell.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 29.—Army officers at local posts were reticent yesterday about divulging the exact nature of the coming visit or the definite itinerary of the officials. It is known that several conferences will be held with Major-General Arthur Murray, commanding the western department, over the erection of new barracks at the Presidio, an increase of troops at local posts and greater fortifications at Fort Winfield Scott.

General Wood will look into the matter of changing the military prison from Alcatraz Island to old Fort Point, and the turning of the island over to the department of justice for use as an immigration station. As General Murray has just completed his annual inspection tour of coast army posts he will be in a position to give both officials full information on the present condition of the western department.

ESTATE OF FIRE CHIEF IN COURT

Final Account of Executor Opposed; Will Declared Invalid.

Contest was filed this morning against the final administration of the estate of the late Frederick Krauth, formerly fire chief of Alameda, by Dolores E. Bradley, guardian of Julia Krauth, the widow, legally incompetent. She contests the final account of Frank E. Midington, the executor, and declares that the will of the former fire chief was invalid. She declares that the money and property was community property of Krauth and his widow, and attacks supposed bills of sale for real property. Arthur E. and Elizabeth Murby were named as purchasers of this property.

The leaving of one-fourth of the estate to Mary August Morgan and one-eighth to Helen Ingram and to Ray Myrtle Merrill is also attacked, and the court is asked to deliver one-half of the law, before the remainder is divided. Property at Park street and Eagle avenue is at stake. It is worth less than $10,000.

NEGLECTED WIFE PLEADS FOR HUSBY

Manuel Thomas, convicted of wife-neglect, was this morning admitted to probation by Judge W. H. Donahue in the Superior Court. The man's wife appeared to plead for him. Thomas was severely grinded by the judge.

"Your wife is here to defend you, after you neglected her," declared Donahue. "You cannot do her any good in jail, and you haven't done her any good outside. Now, you must promise to give up all drink if you want to make a success. This seems to be your trouble. I will not lecture you. All I want is your promise to brace up, be a man, and never go inside of a saloon. If you do, you will be brought back here."

Thomas has secured work, and declares that he will provide for his wife and baby in future.

NEW DANCE ORDINANCE AMENDED IN STRINGENCY

The new dance ordinance, proposed by Chief of Police Walter J. Peterson, has been amended to make it possible to grant a permit for an all night dance by unanimous consent of the city commissioners. The ordinance as first read prohibited public dances between 1 and 3 a. m., and this was objected to by Commissioner W. J. Bacon. The ordinance was again put over for further consideration after the change had been explained in council this morning.

WARNER REMANDED THREE WEEKS AT RUESS' REQUEST

Probation Officer Does Not Repeat Recommendation Which Caused Criticism

The case of Benjamin Warner, accused of the ruin of a 14-year-old girl, now in an institution, whose recommendation for probation by Probation Officer Christopher Rueess, was the cause of bitter criticism of that official's methods by attaches of the district attorney's office, was this morning postponed three weeks at the request of Rueess. He was remanded back to jail during that time.

Rueess did not repeat his recommendation, and explained that he wished the case to come up for final action with that of Morris Markolowitz, a companion, who is being held on a similar charge. The two youths and two girls had been together, it is declared.

"I have no objection to continuing these cases," said Judge Donahue, in speaking of the matter, "because in all such matters the defendants are remanded back to jail and we do no harm. It will show them what the inside of a jail feels like, and probably give them time to reflect."

The case was to have come up today for final settlement, but the agitation in connection with Rueess' recommendation that the man be probationed, and the girl receive punishment grew so strong that it is declared, the case could not have been settled today without subjecting the probation office to criticism, either way the decision of the judge went.

The case of J. O. Anderson, accused of mistreating his 12-year-old sister-in-law, was continued until tomorrow. Austin Lewis, representing him, asked this delay. The man's case is dealt with in a report by Rueess against probation. When the case came up last week and a delay was asked, Judge Donahue declared he was against giving a defendant the right to plead the law to his advantage of the new law, which will allow him to apply for parole after a year in prison. Probation Officer Rueess declared that he found extenuating circumstances in Anderson's case. The man's are 14 years 30 and the girl is 12. It will come up for final settlement tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock.

BERATES SCHOOL BOARDS FAVORING FLASHY ROVER

SACRAMENTO, July 29.—School boards which ignore the home product in the selection of a teacher and decide in favor of the flashy individual with a smooth tongue and a roving disposition, are roundly scolded by State Superintendent of Public Instruction Hyatt who, in the official journal of his office, says:

"Yes, it makes me sad to see a good man who has spent his money and his life preparing for promotion, who has been faithfully working in his home twenty-four years—it makes me sad to see him passed over, turned down, humiliated and driven off of the profession, perhaps, for the sake of some one who comes along tooting a horn rather than teaching school; for some one who has a big bunch of endorsements from the camp followers of the N. E. A. and from the eastern book houses, for one who is never and a waver than the home man and whose fruits are yet unknown."

BUST PATRULMAN IN PECK OF TROUBLE

SAN FRANCISCO, July 29.—Lieutenant Green, who is acting captain of the Central station, has been instructed to make a rigid investigation into the conduct of William Quinn, who arrested George Schmitt on October 2nd and who was subsequently in the office of Sheriff John Barker. Quinn, who was released, together with a young man who had been arrested for the same offense, were both released for the same offense.

RAILROAD MAN MAKES ESTIMATE

Says S. P. Company Is Worth $26,000,000 in Ferry System.

of Charles W. Durbrow, an attorney for the company, before the California state railroad commission yesterday.

Durbrow backed up his statement by figures taken from the suburban electric statement for the fiscal year ending June 30. These were:

Operating expenses $1,723,618.92
Passenger revenue 1,359,636.12
Deficit $363,982.80

Durbrow added that these figures did not include the interest on the investment. Of the expenses the chief item was approximately $1,000,000 for wages and salaries.

"Most persons think the ferry system is a fine paying proposition," said Mr. Durbrow. "But the facts, as you see, are that the people of Berkeley, Alameda and Oakland are getting the finest suburban service in the world at a loss to the company."

NEARLY ALL SUBURBAN.

Another witness for the company said that more than 99 per cent of all ferry traffic is suburban and only a little more than 9 per cent is main line traffic. It also was brought out that more than 800 trains per day are operated from the town to suburban points. The cost of operation was declared to be 19 1/2 cents per mile per car and the revenue was figured at 17 cents per mile per car, making a car mile loss of 2 1/2 cents.

The East Oakland Protective League asserted that the rate of 15 cents for a one way trip of $4.50 for a commutation ticket from San Francisco to Seminary avenue, a distance of 11.8 miles, was too high as compared with the rate of 10 cents one way or a commutation rate of $2 between San Francisco and Thousand Oaks, a distance of 12.1 miles. The attempt was made by the plaintiff to show that realty values were thereby impaired.

The railroad company put up the defense that the rate to Thousand Oaks was of itself low and had been made for competitive conditions.

SAYS RATES LOW.

The company also contended that the rates were low in comparison with rates for similar service in other localities, and in suburban rates set out of New York and Chicago were cited. Several real estate men gave their opinions that a reduction in rates would build up the eastern districts more rapidly. E. M. Webster testified that he had widely heard the Southern Pacific proclaimed as a "highway robbery."

E. A. Freeman was the attorney for the Protective League. Among the Southern Pacific officials on the stand were: H. E. Wade of the passenger department; C. H. Erickson, division superintendent of the Stockton division; J. D. Brown, division superintendent of the Truckee division; J. C. MacPherson, superintendent of the Sacramento division; and S. E. Baker, superintendent of the Colusa division.

BRIDE FEARS HUSBAND

ABLE, Kans., July 29.—Mary Armstrong Dean, the 15-year-old bride, whose second disappearance yesterday, after she had been found at Neodesha, Kans., caused the supposition that H. M. McCord, her alleged abductor, was with her again, was detained by the police here today, awaiting instructions from the authorities at Topeka.

She reiterated her declaration that she would not return to her husband, Harvey Dean, and declared again the cause of her leaving him was threats she said he made on her life.

DECLARES HUSBAND USED KNIFE ON HER

SAN FRANCISCO, July 29.—Edward Jervovitz, a really broker, with offices in the Monadnock building, is charged with cruelty in a divorce complaint filed with the county clerk this morning by Mrs. Ella Jervovitz. The wife says that Jervovitz stabbed her with a pen knife. This is her chief grievance. She adds that he is in receipt of between $300 and $500 monthly. Of this amount she thinks $150 should be a reasonable sum for alimony.

FELIX DIAZ DUE IN SAN DIEGO

General to Reach State Today En-Route to Japan.

SAN DIEGO, July 29.—General Felix Diaz, bound for Japan as the envoy of the Mexican government, is due in San Diego at 4 o'clock this afternoon on a freighter from Salina Cruz. It is stated that the members of his party will guard him, carefully while in San Diego and other American cities to prevent any attempts at violence that might be made by Mexican rebel sympathizers. It is probable General Diaz and his party will remain in San Diego until early tomorrow morning, when they will board a train for San Francisco.

So far as known the steamer will arrive on time and there will be no hitch about landing. It was said that the envoy and his party would leave immediately on arrival on a special train, but up to noon no arrangements for a special train had been made, according to local representatives of the railroads.

DRUMGOOLE DODGES NET IN SAN DIEGO

SAN DIEGO, July 29.—Sacramento officials in San Diego for the purpose of taking Jack Drumgoole and Sam Baber to the state capital, where they will be charged with the murder of Cherry de St. Maurice, were unable to state today when they would leave for the north with their prisoners.

They are conducting a searching examination in San Diego of all evidence so far gathered against the two men and it is probable they will not leave before tomorrow afternoon. So far it is said, all attempts to secure damaging admissions from Drumgoole about the crime have failed.

PLUMS UNDER NEW LAW ALMOST RIPE

Governor Soon to Pick Appointees to Carry Out Purposes of Legislation.

SACRAMENTO, July 29.—Between now and August 10 Governor Johnson will have to busy himself with picking of prospective appointees from among the numerous applicants who want to serve the state under the new laws creating positions, to carry out their purpose, passed by the last legislature.

The governor will have for his aides Sunday night for the purpose of looking over the superior judges appointed there, where several new judges are to be named. While in the south he will probably also see other candidates for positions which he has the power to fill.

L. B. Malory of Los Gatos, chief clerk of the Assembly and aspirant for the position of superintendent under the new weights and measures act, arrived in Sacramento last night to press his candidacy. Some of the other applicants for the position are Charles Johnson of San Francisco, formerly connected with the government service in the bureau of weights and measures, who assisted in the drafting of the bill, and C. F. Stevens of Hanford, another who has been mentioned is Robert Teller, deputy state printer. The position pays $3600.

PUBLIC ENTITLED TO PROTECTION

U. S. Government Investigates and Approves Modern Manufacturing Methods.

Ab! There's the rub! The rubber's the rub, so we did away with the rubber— It doesn't take a whole lot of preaching to prove that rubber rolls because all of us old and young alike, have had practical, actual experience with the performance of rubber in some shape or other—overalls, rubber bands, auto tires, garden hose—or some such way—and we know that rubber in any climate will not wobble it is as sure to hold several hundred dollars in a Player-Piano that you justly expected to get a lifetime of service out of, and then have the rubber tubes decay in it? Just like putting a dollar watch movement in a gold case.

The Autopiano Player-Piano in addition to its other advantages, has other facilities for correct interpretation of your favorite selections without following a lot of impossible, with the called expression levels, possesses the one dominant, essential factor—METAL TUBES—which cannot rot—cannot rust (because made of a lead composition) and are for these reasons PERMANENT.

The United States government, both in the army and navy, has adopted the metal tubed Autopiano in preference to all other makes, and the Autopiano is used exclusively on all battleships in the Pacific squadron and army posts throughout the world. Rubber couldn't stand the rat of changing climate. This is a significant endorsement from the government.

A salesman for one of the old-time high-price rubber houses still selling obsolete rubber tubed player (because they have them on hand we presume), advanced the argument of his helplessness, that metal tubes made your tone metallic. It made us smile, and will make anyone smile who stops to think about it. The air going through the tubes causes a valve to close which in turn operates the piano hammer, and the rat of employed to convey the air to the valve to move the hammer having any bearing on the tone produced, the very idea is so absurd as to be amusing.

But a drowning man will grasp at a straw and we actually feel sorry for the unfortunate dealers loaded up with rubber tubed Player-Pianos. Our fourth carload of genuine Autopiano Player-Pianos with metal tubes—latest style in cases and finish, have just been received. Someone has suggested we call this our "Warfare Sale," for our price on the $700 variety is $457.00, and we claim it superior to any Player-Piano to be had elsewhere at $700.00, you to be judge—$457.00 for a lifetime guaranteed Player-Piano of the best of Terms of 22. Absolutely not necessary to pay anything down if not convenient—free library exchange privilege—Bench and stool to match—Shipping; delivery without additional cost.

This last shipment will go in a hurry and it is imperative that you act immediately. In order that financial matters cannot interfere with your getting one of these players we have arranged the new "nothing down" plan and the $2.00 weekly payment.

Genuine Autopianos cost $585.00 for elegant new studio style and up to $1250 for special art case designs. Our Special Autopiano Player action in other standard makes of pianos $457 during this sale.

Meirose Center Charges Railways Company with Ignoring Stations

MELROSE, July 29.—Steps will be taken at a meeting of the Meirose Center of the California Civic Center next Friday to follow up the complaint against the San Francisco Terminal Railway Company charging the company with permitting its motormen to go past the recognized stopping stations in Meirose without proper reason.

No further word has been received from the commission, however, and the Center has called the meeting to follow up the complaint.

The meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. A. C. Christensen, president of the Meirose Civic Center. Reports from the committee appointed to take up the complaint will be received and action will be taken. The following is the committee: Mrs. George Ingraham, Mrs. Charles Calhoun and Mrs. Boyson.

STREET WORK IS PLANNED BY CITY

The Town Trustees at San Leandro Consider Improvements.

SAN LEANDRO, July 29.—Action over the question of the grading and macadamizing of East Fourteenth street will probably be taken by the town trustees at a meeting held next Monday. Improvement of East Fourteenth street, which is the main thoroughfare in town, has long been agitated. It is pointed out that the street stands in need of grading and relaying in the center of the town, where the heavy traffic has considerably broken up the surface. While the cost of effecting thorough repair of the roadway will be considerable, the general opinion is that the improvement work should be gone on with immediately.

Enforcement of Speed Laws Cause of Cars in Driving.

HAYWARD, July 29.—Since the wholesale arrest of speeding motorists in Hayward, the town has assumed a much quieter aspect, and the rigorous enforcement of the speed laws has been generally stamped out "scorching." For the past three or four days Deputy Marshal Mendonca has kept watch in vain; even the most reckless of joyriders entered and left the town with the utmost decorum and on wild dashes along East Fourteenth

SALOON ISSUES TO COME TO VOTE

Hayward May Have Election on Restrictions for Liquor Traffic

HAYWARD, July 29.—Sunday closing and other saloon restrictions will probably be put to an election issue in the near future, and it is likely that the town trustees at their meeting next Wednesday will come to a decision in regard to an election. A petition signed by 300 residents and presented by the Hayward Good Government League, requested that the trustees pass an ordinance calling for Sunday closing, the provision of open glass fronts to saloons, the abolition of so-called "family entrances" and the renewal of bonds annually. As only 250 votes are required for the calling of an election, the trustees are bound to do so. It is the desire of the petitioners, however, that the regulation ordinance be drawn up without an election in order to save expense. The general opinion is that the question will have to be put before the voters. The Sunday closing question came before the trustees at their last meeting, and consideration of the petition was delayed until the first meeting in August, next Wednesday.

MELROSE TO ASK BETTER LIGHTING

Civic Center Seeks More Light Near Depot of S. P.

MELROSE, July 29.—Melrose Civic Center on the resumption of its meetings after vacation will take up the question of better lighting in the vicinity of the Southern Pacific depot. Residents in this neighborhood including members of the Center are endeavoring to persuade the Southern Pacific company to put up a large electric arc lamp over East Fourteenth and Forty-sixth avenues, at the point where the S. P. line crosses the street.

The crowds which gather near the railroad depot in the dark, it is said, confuse motorists, and other traffic passing along East Fourteenth, and a strong light is required to ensure traffic safety.

BETTER STREETS FOR MELROSE DISTRICT

MELROSE, July 29.—Street improvement occupied the attention of the Melrose Improvement Club last night. The club is in hearty accord with the efforts of the Melrose police force to clean up the district and the members are doing all they can to see that the new road law is upheld by the residents. Better road construction on several of the avenues in the Melrose district was also discussed, and the club decided to take up the matter of improvement with the authorities. President, Meade Nicholson, presided at last night's meeting. Willie A. Smith is secretary of the Melrose Club, which is doing the good work in this neighborhood.

WIZARD OF NILE HAS SWAY OVER AUDIENCE

"Kibosh," the Wizard of the Nile, at Idora Park last night, again fiddled with his egg and noddle, drew stones from the mouth of the papier mache crocodile and laughs from the faces of his audience. Ferris Hartman, as the wizard, was seen in one of his best bits of comedy work and the little opera was presented in a style probably never before seen in Oakland. The Idora Park opera company, in the canopied theater, depicted the happening of the wizard on the rising of the Nile, and sang the catchy music of "The Wizard," scoring probably their greatest success since the opening of their season here.

Ferris Hartman as "Kibosh," George Ebner as "Fisler," the crusty old Pharaoh; Lawrence Boves as "Pharman," the singing master of Cleopatra; Mabel Kingston as the fair princess of Egypt, and all the Idora Park favorites were in the big cast. The piece was staged as well as it was played, the scenery being remarkably good.

Miss Kingston and Ferris Hartman scored heavily in their duet "That Is Love" and Miss Kingston also was heard in several solo numbers. Ferris Hartman's comic song, "That's One Thing as a Wizard Can Do," was as funny as ever, and several topical verses have been added to the list since he last sang it. He had to sing them all. "The Wizard of the Nile" will run all week.

LIMITED TRAIN SAVED; TRAMP HERO OF ROAD

ASHLAND, Or., July 29.—An unknown tramp saved the southbound States Limited from disaster yesterday by flagging it just before it reached a burning bridge near Oakland, Or. The train was late and was running at high speed when the engineer saw a fire on the track some distance ahead and alongside the track stood a man waving a fire brand.

The train stopped and the man by the track told the trainmen that a bridge some distance ahead was on fire. Proceeding slowly, the train approached the bridge, which was at the end of a long curve.

The trainmen saw that the bridge was badly damaged by the fire which had burned away the timbers. Had the train struck the bridge going at the usual speed the structure must have collapsed. The train proceeded on its way after some hours' delay. The tramp will be rewarded.

LABORERS INJURED IN TRAIN WRECK

SPOKANE, July 29.—Five Greek laborers were injured, two of them seriously, when the three rear cars of a Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul work train of six cars loaded with structural steel, jumped a faulty switch late today at the city's east limits and went into the ditch. The laborers, who were part of an extra construction gang, were riding on the wrecked cars and were caught by the falling steel.

Traffic on the Oregon-Washington railroad and Navigation line was blocked for several hours because the Milwaukee work trains used the Oregon-Washington Railroad and Navigation tracks from Dishman, a small station five miles east, into Spokane.

BOY SAVES BROTHER FROM RATTLESNAY'S POISON

RIVERSIDE, July 29.—Prompt use of remedies by Jimmie Lamb, 10 years old, saved the life of Ritchie Lamb, 10, his brother, who was bitten by a rattlesnake nearly six feet long. The boys had been camping in the San Jacinto mountains for several weeks, herding their father's cattle. When the smaller boy was bitten his brother snatched the wound with his pocket knife, sucked the blood and inserted permanganate of potash in the wound. The boys were eight miles from the nearest camp. The snake was killed.

KING AND QUEEN MAY VISIT AMERICA

LONDON, July 29.—A report from Australia that King George and Queen Mary were to lay the foundation stone of the Australian commonwealth parliament house at Canberra next year is denied today by the Pall Mall Gazette, which declares that Canada is to be the next British dominion visited by their majesties.

The Gazette adds: "It may be taken for granted that while so near the United States they will cross the border and it is probable that they will pay a brief visit to Washington and perhaps New York."

Face to Face Courtesies

GOOD telephone service depends largely upon mutual courtesy. The telephone is more useful to those who talk as if face to face, for civility removes difficulties and facilitates the promptest possible connections.

As in other intercourse, it often happens that two or more people wish to talk with the same person at the same time. Without courtesy confusion is inevitable, and the confusion is greater when the people cannot see each other.

The operators must be patient and polite under all circumstances, but they will do better work if they meet patience and politeness on the part of telephone users.

The Bell Telephone Service enters intimately into the social and business life of each individual. The best results come through the practice of mutual courtesy.

SPERRY FLOUR MILLS CLOSED BY STRIKE

STOCKTON, July 29.—The two mills of the Sperry Flour company, which have been operating in this city for years making cereal foods and flour, closed down yesterday on account of labor troubles. The 120 men are out of employment. Twenty are kept at the plant to supply local orders from the stock on hand. Manager Luke issued a statement yesterday in which he said the shutdown was due to existing troubles between the stationary engineers and the mill and warehousemen's unions. The former put a boycott on the works when the company refused to force its engineers to join the union. Then a nine-hour day instead of a ten-hour day was demanded by the packers and truckers, who were organized by the mill and warehousemen. The demand was refused.

PUPILS ARE TO BE FURNISHED ALL BOOKS FREE

Decision of Attorney General Places Oakland in the Right

City to Pay $16,000 for Supplies Furnished School Children

Over $16,000, it is expected, will be the cost to the city of Oakland as a result of the decision by Attorney General U. S. Webb that all school books and supplies must be furnished to California school children free. This opinion is stated in a decision rendered by District Attorney W. H. L. Hynes, puts the Oakland board of education in the right in their recent action in furnishing such supplies.

Last year the board spent many thousands of dollars in buying books, other than state text books, when the free text book law went into effect. Later the board was informed in a decision rendered by the attorney general that they were not complying with the law, which provided only for the free text book. The board then decided to place the matter in a different light.

TO PREPARE FIGURES.

City Superintendent of Schools A. C. Barker and County Superintendent of Schools George W. Frick will at once start work preparing figures in an endeavor to fix the exact cost to the city and county of obeying the law as interpreted. In the case of the county no figures are yet available. Basing their rough estimate on books purchased before the work was stopped last term by Hynes' opinion, the Oakland school authorities fix their expense at approximately $16,000. It may, however, be more. The opinion of the attorney general is as follows:

"Pupils of the elementary schools of the state cannot, under any circumstances, be required to purchase any text-books for school use. All text-books to be used in elementary schools which have been adopted by the state board of education as a part of the uniform series must be furnished by the state free of charge. The school board has no power to use the district funds in the purchase of any such books. Those which are required in such schools and which are not a part of the uniform series adopted by the state board must, if adopted at all, be purchased by the local board of education, and when so purchased they become a part of the local school library, to be used as such."

FINDS NO AUTHORITY.

"Pupils of the elementary schools cannot require pupils to purchase school supplies of any kind. I can find no authority contained in any of the enactments of the recent session which in any way changes the law as it now exists in this respect."

Attorney-General Webb's opinion, which was prepared by Deputy Attorney-General John H. Noice of San Francisco, is a direct repudiation of the recent decision of the office of the District Attorney of Alameda county. This opinion was secured by City Superintendent of Schools M. C. James of Berkeley. It would have permitted the Berkeley school authorities to require the pupils to purchase certain books.

HYATT APPROVES.

State Superintendent of Schools Hyatt, who received a copy of the opinion, says that he is very glad that Attorney-General Webb has set at rest the question of the right of the school board to require children to buy books for use in the public schools. Hyatt is satisfied that the opinion will remedy an abuse of the law which has existed for years in various parts of the state. He says:

"It is an absurdity for the state to undertake to furnish free text books and free supplies to the children, and then to have some schools and counties purchase their own text books and other things—text books, supplemental books, note books, maps, outlines, color boxes, charts, brushes, drawing pencils, crayons, pig pens and heavy knives what else—for the children to buy."

FOR ALL PEOPLE.

"The public schools are for the children of all the people, the poor as well as the rich. It is a shame for the teachers of the school or for school officers, on any theory or pretext whatever, to force expenses on the children and then remind them, worry them and nag them when they are slow in paying. A thousand cruelties have thus been inflicted upon the children of the poor."

Regarding music and drawing books, which school children have been compelled to pay for years, Hyatt says that, until the State Board of Education adopts and prints books in these subjects, it is undoubtedly the function of the local school board to purchase books in these subjects. If they are to be used in the schools.

H. C. CAPWELL HOME FROM PROLONGED WORLD TOUR

Has Unbounded Enthusiasm for Europe and Made Many Observations

Finds Others Ahead in Experience but Americans Catching up

With unbounded enthusiasm for Europe, but with that ever present feeling of "lead-to-be-home-again" nature, H. C. Capwell, head of the H. C. Capwell Co. and one of Oakland's best known commercial men, returned Sunday from a prolonged tour of the Old World.

"The Cleveland is one of the finest ships I have ever seen," was the first thing that Capwell said when he stepped ashore at the Hawaiian Islands, where the American influence is still strong, but the languid spirit of the Pacific islander is still a part of the people's character. It is a charming place. Busy little Japan was a revelation to me, and I must say that I can only find admiration for the Japanese, their methods of doing business, their ability to do well whatever they attempt, China, the Philippines, and so on. The Pacific is a vast field for business, and in each place we found something of value."

INDIA IS WIERD.

"India is as weird and strange as it is pictured, and I say that we were charmed with it. It would be putting it too mildly. Calcutta, Bombay and the interior of that huge land, with resources that almost paralyze one, still took in my mind. The Cleveland then took us through the Suez canal to Naples, and there we were met by a most interesting little game of draw or stud. For the most part the games are said to have been for a low limit, but when the excitement was on, the men have played late into the night. Large sums of money are said to have changed hands and the men have gone from the little room at the rear of the place to face their wives and families without a cent to meet the urgent necessities of the day."

The penal code does not legislate against poker unless it is played for profit on a percentage basis, one person keeping the bank, or the house taking its cut from the jack pots or a percentage on the chips. As a consequence, the game is played openly under the very eyes of the police and they declare they are not in a position to interfere.

PARIS LIKE A BONBON.

"Paris is all they say about it. Take it as you would a bonbon. It makes a delightful confection—but too much of it must be eaten. The French standard is so different from our own, that the American idea would never do in our American—and I'm no pro, either. London is at present suffering from her military suffragettes. These strange creatures have become a great nuisance to the tourist traffic has been noticed since their activities began."

The business methods in Europe are not so compared to our own, according to Mr. Capwell, because the Old World has no methods. "Everything is done in a very polite way there, but with all that there are slipshod methods that astonish the American business man. Selfishness, the wonderful department store in London, disappointed me—it was nothing more than an English shop, big, bulky, but absurd. It should never be called an American department store, because only the American idea is there, not the flower. America is absolutely pre-eminent, in my way of thinking, regarding business and trade conditions. We are very much in a hurry here, perhaps, and are not so polished, but without putting ourselves much on the shoulder, it is safe to say that we're better in this one line than the people of Europe."

EUROPEANS MORE EXPERIENCED.

"We found that Europe had traveled over more of the world than we have, the road called Time. They are ahead of us in experience, but we are catching up to them, because of our speed and the superiority of our machines. We will pass them soon, but the American must live with the idea that the Yankee is superior to his older brothers and sisters in everything, for he is not. Italy is small, but Californians could profit by copying some of the agricultural methods that the game little southern nation is now using, and have been using for centuries. Japan is also in the procession, and keeping up in the advance guard, too. They have a department store there that ranks with anything we have here in America. It is large, managed and controlled by Japanese, but is one of the most methodical, best conducted businesses that I have ever seen."

PORTUGAL ON EVE OF REVOLUTION

Serious Street Fighting Said to Have Occurred

PARIS, July 29.—Dispatches from Portugal received by way of the Spanish frontier today indicate that great revolutionary activity prevails in Portugal. It is reported that a vast movement, planned in Lisbon and Oporto, may break out at any moment. From the same source it is learned that serious street fighting occurred last night in various places. The censor last night refused to allow the cabling of an Associated Press dispatch stating that a band of revolutionaries had attempted to rush the barracks of the Sixteenth Infantry regiment in order to rescue political prisoners detained there. The civilians were repulsed by the troops after an exchange of shots with the guard.

ORDINANCE IS NEEDED ON SALOON GAMBLING

Boy's Recent Expose of Heaney's Establishment Shows Public Menace

The vital and pressing need of an ordinance making the playing of poker in saloons and other public resorts illegal is exemplified in the expose of the situation in several Oakland saloons notably Jack Heaney's place in Broadway, where large sums of money are won and lost nightly by young "bloods" who go there to gamble. A small room in the rear of the place and a semi-enclosed space on the mezzanine floor are always at the service of the "sports" who frequent the place.

The expose came as the result of the arrest of 18-year-old Harry Masters for misdemeanor embezzlement. The boy pleaded guilty and told Judge W. E. Donahue of the juvenile court that he had lost the money gambling in Jack Heaney's place and in two other saloons. Heaney was the game, and Masters lost from $300 to $400, according to his testimony, and then stole from his employer a boy to come into the place, as they declare that by doing so he has laid "the whole game" open to criticism and investigation.

"Harry Masters played around at several of the resorts," declared one of the men who played against the boy at Heaney's. "He won money the night he sat in the game when I was there, but I suspect that a lot of his money went not to gambling, but to running around with women and in for riding."

No sympathy for the boy who was led into the resort by an older man, pined with liquor, allowed to gamble away his earnings and taught that it was mainly to "plunge" on a poker game, was expressed today by the habitues of Heaney's saloon. The men were resentful that the boy had been allowed the entrance of the back room, and so had been given a chance to "sneak" on the game.

Despite the fact that there is no ordinance or state law against the playing of poker, it is pointed out that violations of the law have occurred in Jack Heaney's place which should have been reported by the various patrolmen operating on this beat if they had known about them and that if they did not inform themselves of the conditions prevailing there they were derelict in their duties.

From Masters' expose it is apparent that Heaney permitted the sale of liquor in a minor degree, but that he also violated the regulations with regard to permitting minors under 21 to take part in a game of poker. By the terms of the police regulations of the city, Heaney is guilty of a misdemeanor under the following provision, and it is the duty of the police to see that that guilt is brought home to him:

LARGE SUMS TRANSFERRED.

With a base indifference to public opinion as to gambling, the men, some of them employees of the city and county governments, have been going to Heaney's for many months to enjoy their little game of draw or stud. For the most part the games are said to have been for a low limit, but when the excitement was on, the men have played late into the night. Large sums of money are said to have changed hands and the men have gone from the little room at the rear of the place to face their wives and families without a cent to meet the urgent necessities of the day."

The penal code does not legislate against poker unless it is played for profit on a percentage basis, one person keeping the bank, or the house taking its cut from the jack pots or a percentage on the chips. As a consequence, the game is played openly under the very eyes of the police and they declare they are not in a position to interfere.

The recent report of the vice commission puts the matter squarely up to the police in the opening paragraphs of the report, based upon an investigation covering over almost a year. The report declares:

"A close study of the past and present situation discloses either a laxity on the part of patrolmen in reporting continued violation of certain ordinances, or a failure on the part of higher officials to prosecute such offenders."

The report also declares that there are many saloons in the city of a vicious character, and recommends not only a stricter enforcement of the present ordinance, but also amendment of the present liquor ordinance, which is declared to be obsolete and inadequate.

"It is necessary to discriminate," declares the report, "between the well-conducted saloons that are careful to permit no infraction of police rules, that allow no gambling, that do not sell liquor to minors, women or drunkards, and those which are a constant menace to the welfare of the community by reason of the evil habits connected with them, exist in connection with the sale of liquor, viz., gambling, licentiousness, sale of liquor to minors, etc."

County Jail Pet 'Don' Nearing End of Canine Career

"Don," for fifteen years the pet of the county jail, will probably soon be no more. The dog, a large Scotch collie, is the property of Sheriff Frank Barnett, and is over 15 years old. In the past week he has become almost helpless through rheumatism, brought on by old age, and despite the best of care taken by the attaches of the sheriff's office and county jail, he is declared to be past recovery.

Don has taken several prizes at dog shows during his younger days. He was presented to Sheriff Barnett by Judge W. E. Greene, then on the Alameda county superior bench. Several months ago the blooded animal was first seized with the disease of canine age and for a short time it was thought that he would recover. Last week, however, he smote him heavily. The dog can now scarcely walk.

FILE FINAL DECREE OF ESTATE SETTLEMENT

Final decree of settlement in the estate of the late Andrea Biasotti, one of the pioneers of Emeryville, who died June 19, 1922, was filed this morning in the county clerk's office. Margherita Biasotti is administratrix. A large number of heirs, mostly relatives, were left sums ranging from $300 to $1200. The entire estate, after all heirs are paid, will amount to some $10,000, it is estimated, besides real estate.

SUIT TO SETTLE CHARTER RIGHTS

Test Case Will Decide Differences of Opinion Relative to Appointment

To settle the difference in opinions as to the interpretation of the new city charter held by City Auditor Geo. Gross on one side and by City Attorney Ben F. Woolner and the civil service board on the other, suit is to be brought in the courts on a mandamus proceeding. Gross has successfully held up the appointment of a first assistant fire chief and will deprive the police department of a sergeant by his interpretation. He has done this by refusing to pay salaries for two positions, no matter how many times the city council and individual commissioners make appointments, endorsed by the civil service board.

The clause in the charter which is being torn two ways is that relating to men retired on pension through disability. Gross declares that the clause giving men the privilege of resuming their positions in case of regaining health keeps the position open until the retired employee dies, reaches the age limit or returns. Woolner and the civil service board contend that it merely permits his return as eligible to the same rank as that in which he was retired.

The civil service board will declare an examination for the post of first assistant fire chief to fill the place left vacant by the retirement of George MacDonald, and when this appointment is made the man appointed will be declared ineligible.

BEGIN NEW POLICY IN POWER PERMITS

Government Grants Water Right Under Terms Favoring Consuming Public

WASHINGTON, July 29.—A new policy in granting water power permits was begun today when authority for development of an electric project with an estimated character of $50,000 horsepower on the Pend D'Oreille river, Washington, was granted to the International Power and Manufacturing company.

The grant may run perpetually and can be revoked only for violations of its terms or the provisions of the general regulations. The lower rate charged to the consuming public the lower the rate collected by the government, and to protect the public further a maximum charge of 6 cents per kilowatt hour was fixed.

ALLEGES CRUELTY IN SUIT FOR DIVORCE

Claiming that her husband kicked her and tore the clothes off her back, Augusta Elizabeth Larsen sued Gustav Larsen yesterday for divorce. She claimed in her plea, filed in the Superior Court, that the alleged abuse started on their wedding day and has since continued. The couple were married October 12, 1912.

The divorce suit was granted a final decree yesterday from Fred Strachan, grounds, wilful desertion. She requested to bring suit against Gross to mandamus him to audit the salary warrant.

THE MASTERS CASE--A MODERN INSTANCE

A boy named Harry Masters appeared in the Juvenile Court a few days ago to answer a charge of embezzlement. He had lost the money stolen from his employer, so he testified, gambling in saloons and billiard parlors. He said he had lost $175 in Jack Heaney's, a saloon on the west side of Broadway. His father had made good one shortage and the boy was kept in his position only to abuse it again by losing his employer's money to card sharps.

The case of young Masters is a typical one and the official action relative thereto is an instructive example of condoning violations of the law by keepers of grogshops and kindred resorts. Masters is a minor—a mere lad, as his appearance indicates. Yet he was allowed to drink and gamble in Jack Heaney's saloon as freely as if he were a man and the law sanctioned gambling. It is a criminal offense to sell liquor to minors, and it is a rule, professedly, to revoke the licenses of saloonkeepers who sell liquor to minors.

Yet Jack Heaney is running his place undisturbed by the police. He has not been arrested for violating the law and the City Commissioners have not cited him to show cause why his license should not be revoked for permitting minors to drink, gamble and frequent his place. The indulgence shown him goes far to explain why the experience of young Masters is so often repeated. It also shows how strong a political pull is at the city.

As long as the political pull reaches from the grogshop to the inner temple of authority, lads like young Masters will steal from their employers to be robbed in turn in the back rooms of saloons. Thus the immunity shown the Jack Heaneys, who allow minors to drink and gamble in their places and permit card sharps to rendezvous there and prey upon such patrons as young Masters is responsible for theft and the creation of criminals. Secluded card rooms in the rear of saloons tell their own story. Wherever they are found a certain type of rounder without visible means of support is found hanging about, always ready for a game, always on the lookout for suckers.

The father of young Masters testified that after he had made good the boy's first peculations he had gone around to the places where he said he lost the money and notified the proprietors not to let his son play, as he was a minor. If the boy is to be believed, the warning had no effect. He was allowed to play again in the same places, and now he is publicly branded as a thief. He has lost his position and may become a dependent charge on the State, his employer has lost over $200, and a decent family is overwhelmed with grief and shame.

To what end? What compensation has the community for all this loss and wrong? Why are the Jack Heaneys so influential and so immune from the operation of the law and the police rule regarding the granting of liquor licenses? The supineness in dealing with the Masters case is evidence of a laxity in police vigilance that is reprehensible in the extreme. It shows that there are favorites in the whiskey game, and that retribution for wrongdoing is a matter of special instances, of political favor and winking the other eye.

The public may be prepared for the old stock of subterfuges usually employed to cover up official negligence and excuse saloonkeepers who maintain gambling joints and infringe the laws of decency and morality. It will be said that Jack Heaney must not be called to book until it is proved that the boy actually gambled away his money in Heaney's place. What goes on there is a matter of public notoriety. The crowd to be seen hanging around the place advertise its character and the reason for their presence. Thistles do not grow on fig trees, and sure-thing gamblers do not frequent a place where they are not wanted and where they are not permitted to ply their calling. The secluded cardroom and the gamblers hanging around the front door tell a plain tale to everybody save the policeman on the beat and the myopia attracted official in the city nau who cannot see a white horse run across the layout when he has had a hint from the right quarter that certain saloonkeepers are good people.

Hence the Jack Heaneys. Hence the sharps and flats to be found in such places. Hence such stories as the one told by Masters. If the law forbidding the sale of liquor to minors were strictly and impartially enforced the public would be spared such stories. If saloonkeepers who foster the patronage of professional gamblers and who permit minors to frequent and gamble in their places were certain their licenses would be forfeited the town would lose some undesirable citizens and there would be fewer defalcations to be traced to the gaming table.

The saloon maintained as a gambling resort lacks only one element—the prostitute—to complete the sum of iniquity. Behind the sure-thing gambler is the saloonkeeper, and behind the saloonkeeper is the "pull." That is the cord which should be cut, and which will have to be cut if gambling in saloons is to be stopped and the saloon business conducted decently and lawfully. That umbilical connection between the agents of vice and the agents of the law must be severed before there can be any substantial reform, or effective and impartial administration of the law.

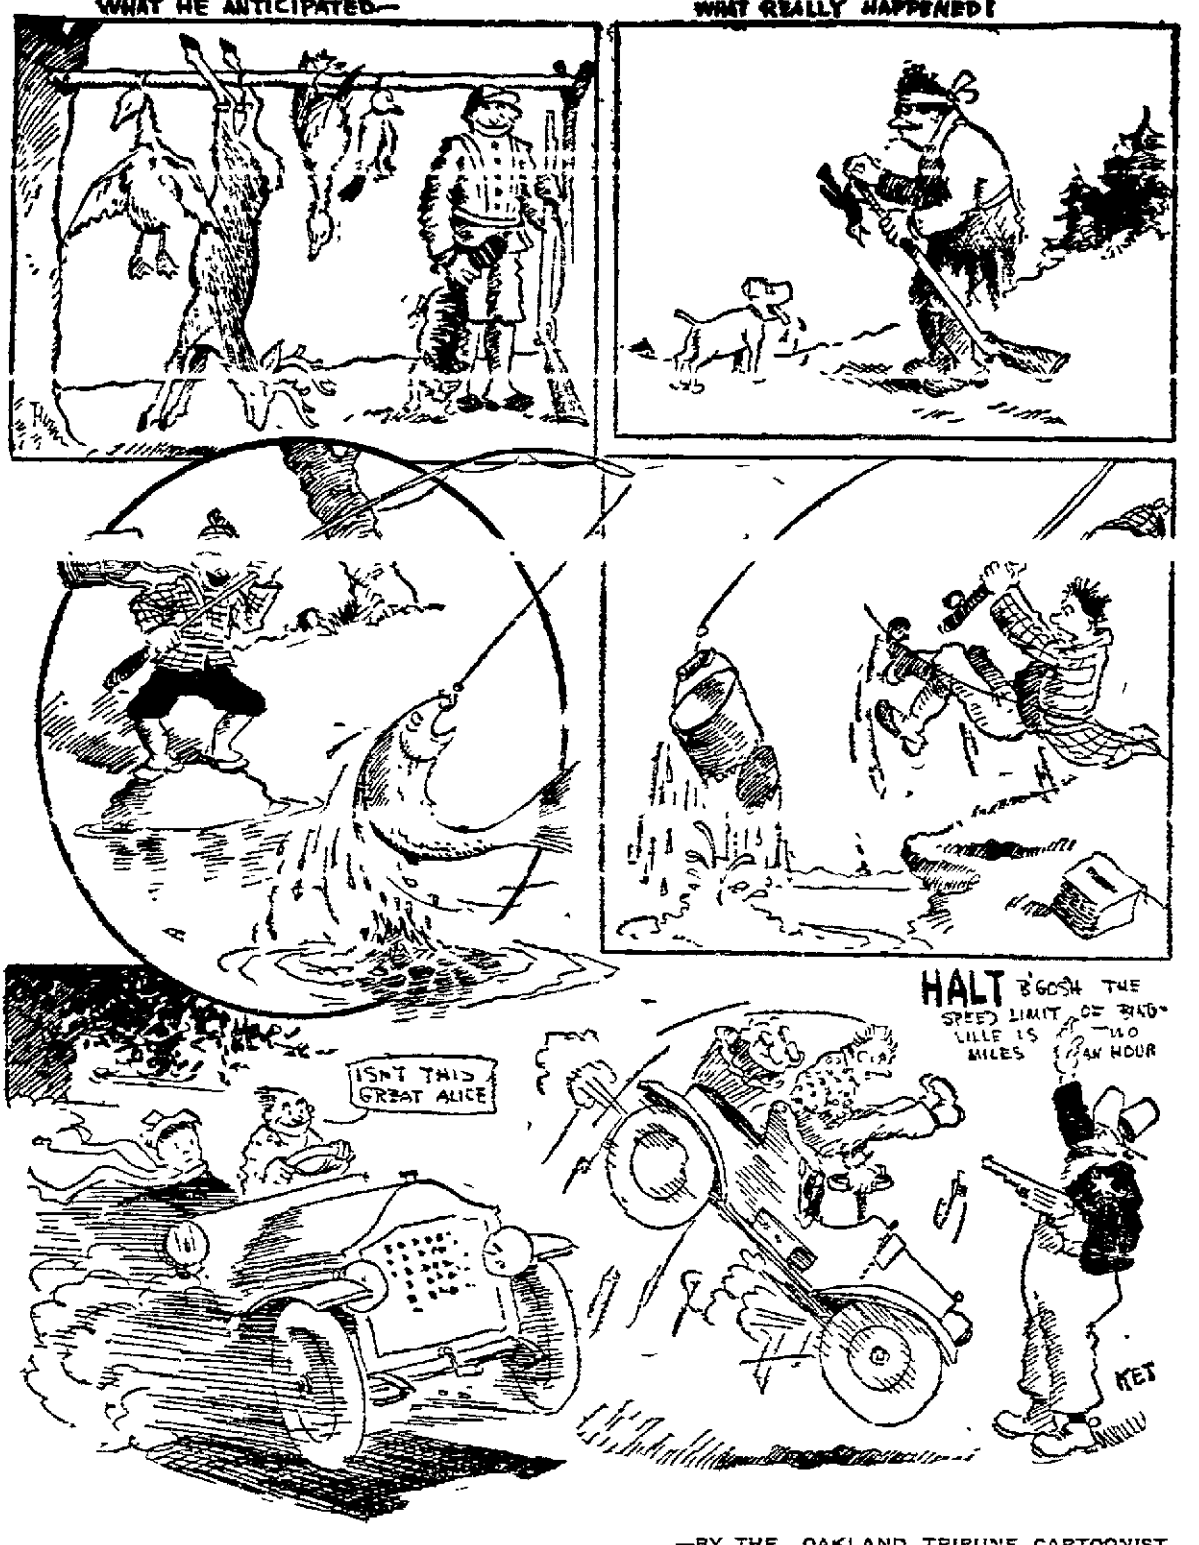

Ambassador Wilson's Loose Talk.

Hon. Henry Lane Wilson, American Ambassador to Mexico, has been making some very undiplomatic statements since his arrival in Washington. He expresses himself as a very frank partisan of the Huerta administration, and freely criticised President Wilson for appointing Hon. R. F. Del Valle of California special commissioner to investigate the situation in Mexico without consulting him. He commented in a grievous tone on the fact that Mr. Del Valle had not yet called on him.

Mr. Wilson's talk conveys the idea that the United States should be better represented in Mexico by an envoy less free of speech and less partisan in spirit. The revolting leaders have from time to time charged that Mr. Wilson was a partisan of the Huerta government, and the next thing he does on reaching Washington is to prove out of his own mouth that the charge is true. His attack on the constitutionalists, whom he calls bandits, is a move to provide recruitment and to increase the difficulty of dealing with them.

Wilson displayed a woeful sense of diplomatic propriety in his attack on the newspaper reporters before he had even met the President and Secretary of State. He was discreditable and his attack on the press was a reflection on the State Department.

SUCH IS LIFE

ers and their methods of warfare. It is somewhat surprising that he has not been sharply admonished to hold his tongue. His conduct certainly challenged reproof.

Ambassador Wilson should have laid all the information in his possession before the President before talking to the newspapers. He would have shown more tact and discretion by refraining from all talk outside the cabinet closet calculated to provoke ill-feeling and inflame the bitter feeling entertained for him by the insurgent chiefs. We can understand now why they hate him so, and why he finds them so implacable to deal with. He has furnished a reason why another ambassador should be sent to Mexico. Yet in many respects Mr. Wilson has proved himself a capable and diligent envoy, which makes his unfortunate slips of the tongue all the more regrettable. Probably the most unfortunate thing he said was his reference to the Madero family. In view of past events and his connection with them, Mr. Wilson was singularly indiscreet in what he said. His lapse is peculiarly unfortunate because his view of the general situation seems to be clear and sound. He is opposed alike to intervention or mediation in conjunction with any European power. A request from the European powers to join with us in mediation would be inconsistent with the Monroe Doctrine.

Aloha, Secretary Daniels.

Secretary Daniels made a good impression in California. Apparently the impression he made in Oregon and Washington was equally good. Adulation has not turned his head nor does he mistake cordial hospitality for hero worship. Mr. Daniels is a plain man. The homespun in him appears to be of good quality and promises to wear well. One of the most taking things about the Secretary of the Navy is his receptive open-mindedness. He frankly says he does not know it all and is anxious to learn. He does not feel that he is too big for his position, rather that he is not big enough for it. There is always promise in such a man. A fund of common sense, a vein of humor, a willingness to learn and a sincere desire to do the best he can make up an exceedingly desirable combination. That is what Mr. Daniels offered for the consideration of the people of the Pacific Coast, and it is not too much to say they liked it immensely. His simple earnestness put him at once on good terms with all he met, and he goes back east with the cordial good wishes of thousands who do not agree with him politically. There is no starch in his manners, but THE TRIBUNE will guarantee there is plenty of good red American blood in his veins. He is not a horseradish nor a horse marine, which is a good thing for the navy, and he seems supplied with all the horse sense needed to carry him through. The people of California will be glad to see Secretary Daniels among them again, and if he carries out the intentions he expressed on his recent visit he will be welcomed on his second visit with even heartier enthusiasm than when he came here first. So here's good luck to you and better acquaintance. It seems that there's a man on the job in the Navy Department, and that is something we all want irrespective of party.

Political equality is making progress in Illinois. At Volo in that State a band of women recently rode a woman on a rail through the streets and ended the ride with a warning to leave town. Anyone can guess the offense she was charged with. Some of the women participating in the performance suspected that their husbands were too friendly with their victim. So they meted out a punishment that has heretofore been regarded as a penalty to be inflicted exclusively on men. But women have recently been given the ballot in Illinois and have apparently concluded that sauce for the gander should be sauce for the goose.

GAMBLING A DISEASE

New York with its board of inquiry as a protecting arm for the drunkard, may some day have a similar haven for the gambler, if an idea suggested by a doctor is carried out. Discussing "What Is the Nature of the Mania for Gambling," the doctor-editor says: "A gambler is as dangerous to his family as an alcoholic, more dangerous than an opium fiend. There seems to be a remedy for him but a sanatorium—not to call it an asylum—where long-enforced abstinence from his vice may induce new habits and bring about a saner outlook on life. We are not often called upon to treat a gambler, at least not for his gambling propensities, but a time may come when the victims of such habits will be brought to the alienist.

"Actual association with horse, card, and roulette friends is required in order to realize what a terrible grip their habit has upon them. It is a veritable monomania. Only a few days' successful gambling will induce the victim to quit a paying position, his judgment unsettled to such an extent as to lead him to the conclusion that the hours he spends in dull but painful occupation are wasted.

ICE WATER NOT INJURIOUS

A change has come over the attitude of health experts with regard to the use of ice water as a means of preserving health in hot weather in recent years. Almost any one of middle age will remember very well when it was the custom to decry the use of ice water as particularly deleterious and most of the preceding generation were quite sure that the habit of drinking ice water in large quantities which had developed among Americans in the latter part of the Nineteenth Century would surely bring about serious disturbances of digestion and perhaps lead to such degeneration of digestive powers as would leave men in their later middle ages the victims of incurable dyspepsia or at least seriously impaired digestion.

PERSONALLY Speaking

W. H. Wiebke, well known Oaklander and director of the Commercial Club, has returned from a month's automobile trip through Eastern and Northern California and Oregon. He has visited, although the last part of the tour was somewhat marred by excessive rainfall and wash-outs.

G. E. Dickes, superintendent of Oakland's playgrounds, is now in New York, where he is extremely busy making notes and photographs of the municipal playgrounds in the nation's metropolis. He writes that he is much impressed with the swimming pools provided by most of the eastern cities that he has visited, and on his arrival in Oakland will begin a vigorous campaign for the quick establishment of one here.

Edwin Messer, tax collector and city treasurer, has returned from Los Angeles after a two weeks' vacation spent there with his family. He has taken charge of his office again.

John H. Mellon, clerk in the health department, has returned from Los Angeles with his wife and two children to be gone two weeks.

Late hours and a spicy breath are sure to tell on a man.

The resolution provides for five precincts. Election officers were appointed.

Mayor Ludewig reported on the trip of Secretary of the Navy Daniels to Richmond last Saturday. The mayor had charge of all the arrangements for the secretary's visit and his trip around the local waterfront, and to the Standard Oil plant, and he was praised by the council for his successful handling of the reception. He was also Mayor D. W. McLaughlin, chief of the mayor on that occasion.

Bids were received for the improvement of Eleventh street from Macdonald avenue to the Santa Fe right of way. Two bids were submitted, $12,236.32 and $12,231.30, respectively, and the contract was awarded to the lowest bidder, with the understanding that work was to begin at once.

The same action was taken in reference to Ninth street from Chancery avenue to the Santa Fe tracks.

Plans and specifications and the resolution of intention for the improvement of First street from Ohio to Cutting Boulevard were adopted.

TO HOLD INQUEST IN MURDER CASE

Jury to Probe Cause of Tonsing's Death at Hands of Wife

RICHMOND, July 23.—The inquest on the case of the late Francis I. Tonsing, who was shot and killed at his home at 547 Fifth street, this city, on the evening of July 5th by his wife, Josephine Tonsing has been called for this evening at the Smallwood undertaking parlors, and the following jury has been summoned: George W. A. Kreamer, Bert Pariss, George Frank, P. J. Smith, W. T. Helms, A. J. Nichols, Ed Dearborn, A. A. Winfree, Clarence Wilson and Ed Carlson.

A great number of witnesses have been subpoenaed who know something of the affair prior to or after the domestic tragedy which caused the snuffing out of one life and the dangerous wounding of the wife of the dead man, who is now facing a charge of murder.

The jury will undertake to establish the manner and cause of the homicide but will not attempt to accuse Mrs. Tonsing, as this will not be necessary under the charge already made against the woman. Mrs. Tonsing is still in the hospital and owing to her weakened condition will not be able to stand the mental strain of attending the inquest this evening. She will need all her strength and fortitude to face the trying ordeal of the murder charge when it comes up in the Superior Court.

COUNTY TEACHERS WILL CONVENE AT RICHMOND

RICHMOND, July 23.—The annual teachers' institute for Contra Costa county will be held in Richmond this first week in September. If the present plans of County Superintendent W. H. Hanlon are carried out, prominent speakers, lecturers and educators will be engaged for the occasion and it is anticipated that the gathering will be a large and interesting one this year. One day of the institute will be devoted to a trustees' meeting. Superintendent Hanlon issued a call yesterday for bids on county school supplies, which are to be used by the districts which have entered the agreement to combine and buy in bulk from the lowest responsible bidder. It is figured that this plan will be a great saving to many of the schools of this county.

While the former is having a "good time" the latter is "very often dragging around" around persons "on down tired out" with sobbing back and weary limbs, sleepless and wretched often it is "idiotic" trouble, not female trouble, and Foley "knows."

CANDIDATES ARE EARLY IN FIELD

Numerous Names Are Mentioned for Contra Costa County Offices

RICHMOND, July 23.—While it is early to make political forecasts for next year, many prominent candidates have been mentioned for the various Contra Costa county offices.

Concerning the two superior judgeships incumbent of division No. 1, will have no opposition.

For department No. 2 of the Superior Court, District Attorney McKinnis of Martinez is mentioned, also Attorney W. S. Thinning of Martinez, and H. C. Alvarado and City Attorney D. J. Hall, both of Richmond. M. R. Jones and J. E. Rodgers, of the county seat are also said to be possibilities.

McKinnis may be a candidate for reelection to the office of district attorney.

Richmond is to be reckoned with seems now certain, while rumor says that Deputy District Attorney Ramsey of Walnut Creek and Attorney Ralph Wright of Martinez both have aspirations.

The contest for the office of sheriff will undoubtedly be between Sheriff Veal of Martinez and Chief of Police Arnold of this city. This will be an interesting race.

Jasper H. Wells, present county clerk, will be again a candidate for re-election, with Frank King of Richmond casting a possible shadow in the background.

Martin Joest, incumbent, will ask continuance in office as tax collector, with a possible opponent in H. H. Turley.

For assessor, George O. Meese, of Martinez, incumbent, will seek re-election. Councilman E. J. Gorman of this city has been mentioned for the place.

Auditor A. N. Sullivan, incumbent, also desires longer tenure in office. Fred Newsum of Richmond, who made a race for the assembly last time, may dispute his claim.

No name has as yet been mentioned for treasurer other than that of J. Rio Baker, recently appointed to fill an unexpired term.

W. H. Hanlon, incumbent, will be a candidate for re-election to the office of superintendent of schools, and be opposed by J. Frank Fox, principal of the Antioch school.

Crockett and Miss Julia Hall, of Alamo, Dr. C. L. Abbott seems to have an uninterupted path for re-election for mayor, unless Bert Curry, also of Richmond, is taken into consideration.

No candidate for the legislature has yet been mentioned.

"DAGO RED" LANDS TWO ITALIANS IN JAIL

RICHMOND, July 23.—A popular Italian wine as "Dago Red" known for its cutting affray on the west side of this city last night, in which two members of the Italian colony got out in front of the de Italia hotel on Standard avenue and gave vent to their overflowed enthusiasm by taking to the streets with revolvers.

Interpersed with a free-for-all melee with bad looking knives. It finally ended by two injured Italians being housed in the city jail on a charge of disturbing the peace. One of them has an ugly gash in his hand and the other a bullet hole in his arm as a result of the fracas.

As angry as they were when under the influence of the "pink pan" of their native country, they are great friends ordinarily and are condoning with each other today over the mistake they made.

RICHMOND EXTENDING SEWERS A HALF MILE

RICHMOND, July 23.—Work has commenced on the big sewer extension through what was once the Menker tract in the south part of the city, and will be extended as far as a distance of over half a mile, furnishing the residents of that section with long needed sanitation. The work is costing something over $32,000 and is quite an extensive job. It is to be completed before the winter rains set in and is paid for from the sanitation district formed of that section of the city.

The many big street paving jobs are being carried forward by the various contractors at work upon them, many miles in all, and road progress is being made on this work in half a dozen different sections of the city. Richmond is spending over a quarter of a million in street improvements this season.

RICHMOND NOTES

RICHMOND, July 23.—The Winehaven ball team lost to the Red Sox of the Albany team at Winehaven grounds, with a score of 11 to 3. The Elks team of this city was defeated in a fast game with the Winehaven team of San Francisco, the score being 11 to 8.

E. Allen of this city was thrown from his motorcycle, twenty-third street and Macdonald avenues, last evening and seriously hurt. The machine struck a telephone pole and threw Allen heavily to the pavement.

The grammar school of this city will open next Monday and the elementary and teachers are busy with the preparations. Members of the Patriotic Sewing Club postponed their meeting yesterday afternoon for the purpose of attending the picnic of the soldiers and soldiers' wives at East Shore Park this afternoon which promises to be a fine affair and needed the attention of the ladies of the sewing club in the refreshment arrangements.

Manager Louis Perrelli of the Peoples Water Company reports that work has been started on the new water mains on Eleventh street from Barrett to Roosevelt avenue and also the street side along Crest and Terrace avenues. The work and improvement is extensive and will make the service much better than formerly.

Chief of Police Arnold reporting for the last time, states that 111 reports were received, 548 arrests made, 134 convictions obtained, fines and fees to the sum of $2,000 and 1000 hours of community work.

GIRL INSISTS SHE KILLED FARMER

Her Sister, However, Declares Fiance of Defendant Is Murderer.

BARDWELL, Ky., July 23.—Although May Copeland, at her preliminary hearing yesterday testified she fired the shot which killed Hugh Atchison, a wealthy farmer near here, last Saturday, her sister, who is also the widow of the murdered man, swore on the witness stand that this was a physical impossibility.

Mrs. Atchison declared that she and her sister were in one room when a shot was heard in the adjoining room where her husband lay. The two women rushed in and found Atchison dead in bed. On the threshold of the door was a lighted cigarette of the brand smoked by Lucien Turk, Miss Copeland's fiance, who was in the house. The widow testified a wall and an iron stove were between her sister and the room where the shot was fired. The girl, however, insisted she had killed her brother-in-law.

Both Miss Copeland and her fiance are being held for the murder. Turk's father is one of the wealthiest men in western Kentucky.

UNJUSTLY OUSTED, SAYS MRS. WALTER CROUTHER

MARTINEZ, July 23.—After having been the bride of Walter Ralph Crouther, a well-to-do rancher of Brentwood, in no reason for her being summarily dismissed as teacher in the Brentwood school, is the argument of Mrs. Crouther, who until her recent marriage, said today, was a clerk in the school.

The trustee of the school here viewed the matter in a different light.

When the former Miss Heck was engaged as a teacher for the next year, Secretary Robert Wallace of the school board maintained she did not tell the board that she was to marry within a few days and as a consequence that entitled her to leave her position.

They have no objection to married women, but she should have told them that she was to marry.

BLOW AT HEREDITY HOPE FOR CHILDREN

DR. M. P. E. GROSZMANN

UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA, July 29. — The majority of exceptional children can be saved for useful citizenship and the percentage of uneducable ones is very small. So heard an interested audience at the Philosophy building yesterday afternoon from Dr. Maximilian P. E. Groszmann, educational director for the National association for the study and education of exceptional children. Dr. Groszmann is responsible for the study of hereditary defects. Miss Helen Keller was held up as an evidence of what could be done for those seemingly hopelessly handicapped. A direct slap was given to Dr. Groszmann to some modern theorists in eugenics. He declared: "If invariably drunkenness is transmitted from parent to child, all of us would have been drunkards by now, or feeble minded. Back several generations all of our forefathers were drinkers to an extent that could be regarded as positively insane. As regards social diseases, their prevalence in the past was much greater than it is today. It is rash, moreover, to say that a criminal will transmit criminal tendencies. In short, where there are outstanding defects there will be transmission, but where the defects are mental, moral and emotional, it is a little more difficult to say what heredity will produce."

HU-NAN PROVINCE SECEDES FROM GOVERNMENT, CONSULAR REPORT

LONDON HEARS RUMORS OF DISASTROUS DISASTROUS

Lima, Peru Is Reported in Trouble But Report Is Denied

Wires Down to Santiago and Fears of Europe Are Aroused.

LIMA, Peru, July 28.—There is no truth in the reports current in Europe and America of a disaster in this city. There has been no extraordinary occurrence of any kind. The rumors probably arose from the fact that telegraphic communication between here and Santiago, Chile, is interrupted.

LONDON, July 29.—A dispatch from Santiago, Chile, to a news agency reports a great disaster at Lima, Peru. All wires between Chile and Peru are cut and it has not yet been possible to obtain details.

COMPANY NOT ADVISED.

NEW YORK, July 29.—The reports of trouble at Lima, Peru, were news at the offices of the Central and South American Telegraph Company here, there having been usual communication with Lima up to last evening. The officers were unaware that communication had been cut off and they accepted cable messages to Lima this morning in the belief that they could get them through.

As late as last evening a dispatch was received by the Associated Press direct from Lima announcing the election of a new cabinet and not mentioning anything in the nature of an earthquake or a revolution.

Political conditions in Peru have been disturbed for some time, the anger of the populace being directed chiefly against the Senate. A bomb was exploded at the residence of the speaker of the Senate last week and on the same day a mob prevented the senators entering the Senate chamber for the session.

The cause of the trouble was that the speaker had ignored a decision of the Supreme Court in regard to the annulment of the election of some senators. Telegrams were exchanged by this city and Lima this morning through the Central and South American Telegraph Company as usual.

JOBB ATTACKS SENATOR.

WASHINGTON, July 29.—News came to the state department last night from the American minister at Lima, Peru, that a mob had surrounded the residence of the president of the Peruvian Senate and taken possession of the Senate chamber.

Questioning of the credentials of a number of anti-administration senators brought on the demonstration. A new cabinet to succeed that of Dr. Aurelio Souza, which resigned last week, was named yesterday. Juan Velasco Varo is president of the council and minister of war.

'BUSINESS MATTER,' NOT CHURCH ETHICS

Rev. Baird Does Not Look for Bishop's Interference

ALAMEDA, July 29.—The Rev. Edward J. Baird, rector of St. Luke's Episcopal church in Woodland, returned last night to Alameda from Salinas where he conducted services in the Episcopal church. When told that the Woodland church mixer would be submitted to Bishop Moreland for settlement, upon the bishop's return from his vacation, the Rev. Baird said that he could scarcely see what Bishop Moreland had to do with the matter beyond offering his opinion as to whether or not it was a church matter.

He said that no question of church discipline or of church ethics was involved, that the dispute was simply a business matter.

Referring to the report of the vestrymen exonerating Banker C. W. Bush, the minister observed that the vestry board had signed that report before the church had made any formal charges of tax business methods on the part of the former church treasurer. He said that one of the vestrymen was a clerk in Bush's bank and was a young man who had never taken up a church offering and knew absolutely nothing of how the church finances were handled by the bank. Another vestryman, said the divine, had not been inside the church for three years. A third had never taken an offering and in three years had attended church perhaps a half-dozen times.

The rector said that Attorney Armfield, in declaring that he was not elected from the vestry meeting by the rector, was correct inasmuch as the rector led him through the door. "Technically," said the Rev. Baird, "perhaps Armfield was not elected, but I had led him to the door, he walked through by himself, Armfield asked me if I was going to hide behind my skirts like a woman and I told him nothing of the kind. He blubbered something about wishing he was weighed down enough to come right along and leave the meeting."

Reports of the Woodland troubles were published in Sacramento and said that the chief development in the trouble was that the Rev. E. J. Baird threatened to sue the tax collector, Armfield. The Sacramento report, dealing with happenings a few days ago, said:

Rev. Baird spent a few hours in Woodland yesterday afternoon and then departed for Alameda, where he is spending his vacation. He and Lawyer Armfield did not meet on the street, nor in any formal or informal gathering, so far as is recorded in the Yolo county seat.

Before departing for the bay district, Rev. Baird issued the following statement answering Armfield and telling about the struggle in the church which brought about the scandal.

HIS REPLY ISSUED.

"It is a mistake perhaps to wrestle with a chimney sweep or an individual who is regarded by members of his own profession as a 'straw'."

Prominent people in Woodland have asked me that such is the reason that Bush selected him as his representative lawyer would perform the part.

"He claims that I did not elect him—correct, technically, but not virtually."

HANDLED LAWYER GENTLY.

"When I found that the illegal obstacle had to be removed, and knowing that the charges of all churches must not, if possible, be kept unkindled, I simply turned enough physical pressure to move the obstacle in question from the desk at the front of the church annex to the proximity of the back door."

"By this time the individual, so brave in print at a distance, had a protruding under lip—like our little boy when about to cry. The lip touched a tender spot (for which I am almost sorry), and for that reason the concluding boot action was not applied, which would have made the action technical as well as actual."

"He was a bit of a tremble, something about wishing he weighed forty pounds more," read a sentence from a paper, which nobody heard, and I patiently gave him a moment's time to eject himself."

Byster lawyers, for whom the honorable men in the profession have no regard, are always strong on technicalities.

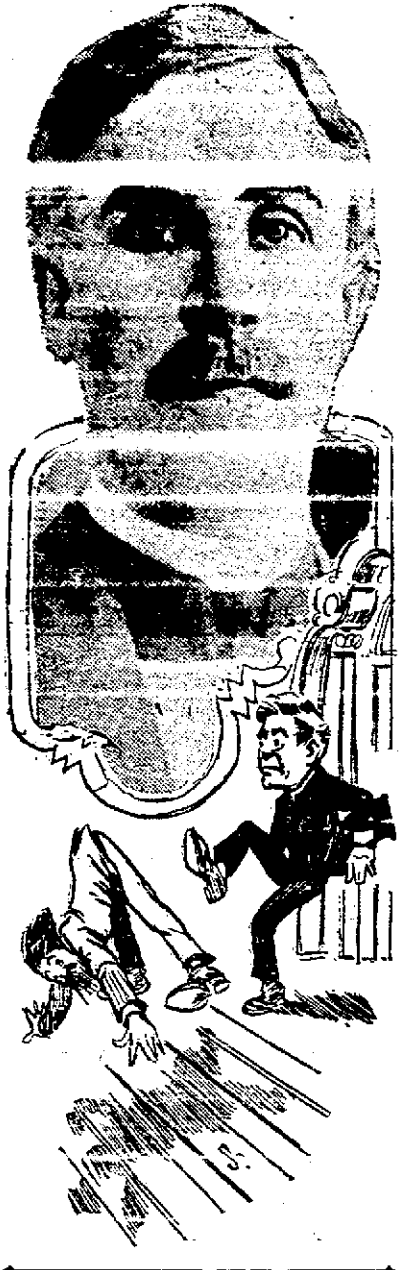

WILL USE BOOT NEXT.

"Should he ever thrust himself upon another meeting of a private and official sort at which I preside I promise faithfully in advance to see, personally, that his election is complete, and not merely to the precincts of the door."

Bush declined to make any reply, but authorized the publication of the report of the vestry which investigated the charges of irregularities in his accounts and which is considered a complete vindication.

CLEAR BANKER BUSH.

The report is as follows: Whereas, certain charges have been made and circulated against C. W. Bush, who for many years was the treasurer of St. Luke's church, Woodland, and was also treasurer of the building committee under whom the new St. Luke's church was erected; and whereas, some of the charges were to the effect that said C. W. Bush failed to credit and account for certain general offerings made the said St. Luke's church; and whereas, certain certain offerings made by members to certain church support; failed to account for and credit certain contributions to the building fund, for the new church building, and lastly kept the church accounts in a loose and careless manner; and whereas, said C. W. Bush, after investigation into said charges by a committee of the vestry it was found that

BRYAN NARROWLY ESCAPES SMASHUPS

Secretary Now Occupied Dodging Insurance Solicitors

WASHINGTON, July 29.—Secretary Bryan today faced a problem even more complicated and subtle than the Japanese and Mexican questions when he discovered he was the quarry sought by accident insurance solicitors as the result of two narrow escapes from disaster yesterday. Driving to the Department of State the secretary's car was narrowly missed by a street car and a moment later a heavy electric bus came close to running it amidships. In both cases the escape was narrow.

The car was turning into Pennsylvania avenue when the car, rounding a curve, started full speed ahead. A crossing policeman saw the danger of a collision.

"Hey, you," he called to the motorist, "stop that car, quick."

The motorist clapped on the air brakes, halting the car within a few inches of the hind wheels of the vehicle. Mr. Bryan's driver whipped up the horses only to get directly in the path of an electric bus, which also stopped so suddenly that the passengers were tossed about.

Throughout the experience the secretary's well known smile did not fall from his face. His placidity in striking contrast to the agitation of the driver and the nervous prostration from which the policeman, motorist and bus driver seemed to be suffering.

VISITS EXPOSITION SITE AND GETS BEATING UP

SAN FRANCISCO, July 29.—Anthony Reh, a resident of Los Angeles, and here on a vacation trip, was assaulted by men whom he believes are strikers, near the fair grounds this morning and badly beaten. Reh visited the exposition site over the situation of the Pacific Gas and Electric Company he was accosted by two men, who demanded to see his union card. He replied that he didn't have any and explained that he had just arrived from the south. Nevertheless he was set upon and struck about the head and face. He sustained numerous lacerations and bruises and complained at police headquarters.

In Woodland by Mr. J. W. Thomas, Mr. Baird's attorney, to talk over the situation with a view of an amicable settlement, as much in Mr. Baird's favor as possible. I want there to be no doubt but knowing until yesterday that he is not friendly to me. His unkindness and his statements of my former statements are as great as mine and no more.

"Bishop Moreland could not wrongfully refer to a private official letter through me from the fact that the bishop has made no such letter known to me."

"It is a mistake to say that I will call on the bishop's name and not the authority of the church that does this. I am far from going with, and will call on the bishop's name and not the authority of the church that does this."

The first statement of the trouble here is that the bishop's name is not to be used in any way.

BLAMES BANKS FOR U.S. BOND DECLINE

Secretary McAdoo Declares Concerted Campaign Was Waged

Says Two Per Cent Bonds Are Worth Far, Notwithstanding Decline.

WASHINGTON, July 29.—Secretary McAdoo issued a statement last night flatly charging that the decline of government two per cent bonds to 95 1/2—a new low record—was due "almost wholly to what appeared to be a campaign waged with every indication of concerted action on the part of a number of influential New York City banks to cause apprehension and uneasiness about these bonds in order to help them in their efforts to defeat the currency bill."

Banks throughout the country own almost entirely $730,382,130 of the two per cent bonds. Their market value today was approximately $20,000,000 lower than when the banks bought them. Almost all the entire issue is used as security for national bank notes. At the present price, however, the discrepancy between the market value and the issues of notes against the bonds is covered by what is known as the five per cent redemption fund, deposited by the banks with the treasury to care for retirements of national bank notes.

PLAN EMERGENCY COURSE.

Secretary McAdoo announced it was not his intention to require the banks to charge off the present depreciation below par, but that he might continue to put in the bonds at par in their statements to the comptroller of the currency "until some material change in conditions should compel the adoption of another course."

In his statement, Secretary McAdoo declared that the two per cent bonds were worth par notwithstanding their decline in the New York market, and continued:

"The idea seems to be that the country banks, which hold about two-thirds of the two per cent bonds, and use them as the basis for circulating notes, may be induced to unite with the New York City banks in opposition to the bill if they can be made to believe that the proposed currency measure is going to injure these bonds and cause losses to the banks. This is, of course, unfounded."

POLLY TO SELL AT LOSS.

"Anytime it is folly for any bank to sell government bonds at a sacrifice because of any proposed legislation adverse to government, as no such legislation will result. In the 124 years of its existence the government has kept faith scrupulously with its creditors and it is not going to change its honorable character now. If the necessities of bank oblige it to sell bonds at a sacrifice, that is a matter of course, is another matter—a matter solely for the bank to determine."

The secretary said that not only had nothing occurred to impair the value of the two per cent bonds, but that the amendments already adopted by the banking and currency committee of the house enhances their intrinsic worth.

MARKET NARROW.

"There is, and always has been, a narrow market for the two per cent bonds, just as there is for many inactive although high grade corporation bonds, and every one knows how easy it is to put up or down the quotations for such bonds, especially when a favoring state of mind has been skillfully operated," said the secretary. "The department, because of its relation to the banks and its necessarily important part in the financial affairs of the country, has a deep interest in the welfare of the banks, in the stability of the financial situation, in a continuance of the prosperity now attaching to agricultural and industrial enterprises and general business."

RESTRICT CREDITS.

"For these reasons," the secretary said, "he hoped the banks would not consider a suggestion from him to limit the amount of credit to be extended to the banks in quarters there is to restrict legitimate credits. There is nothing in the situation to warrant such a course. The banks should not put undue restraints on business. Should any unusual stringency appear, the secretary said that it could easily be met through resort to the $500,000,000 emergency currency now held in reserve which can be issued if the banks need it by use of the resources of the treasury department, or both. In conclusion, the secretary said, with emphasis, "there is not going to be any financial trouble and that the large crop now in prospect are going to be marketed without a hitch."

DEMAND INQUIRY.

Investigation of Secretary McAdoo's charges that New York banks have organized a campaign to depress the price of government two per cent bonds was demanded in a statement issued by Representative Henry, aid to the so-called insurgent Democrats on the House banking committee.

Henry said the committee had its hands full considering the administration currency bill and did not propose to be diverted. He and other members of the committee, however, made it plain that they reserved the secretary's opinion as to the charges for the department.

Henry said the committee would be called on to examine the conduct of the banking and currency committee and would be called on to examine the conduct of the banking and currency committee and would be called on to examine the conduct of the banking and currency committee.

SHE LOUNGES IN PAJAMAS SEEKS DECENT ALIMONY

MRS. RAYMOND BELMONT, WHO HAS STARTLED KEANSBURG, N. J., BY WEARING MEN'S UNDERWEAR.

KEANSBURG, N. J., July 29.—On the big front porch of a nice house in exclusive Granville park, two girls lounged this afternoon in men's summer underwear. Even if I have to take it I'll be forced to go back on the stage—as Mrs. Raymond Belmont—and I hope to get the same salary I received when I met Raymond four years ago. It was getting $25 a week. I was a chorus girl—a prosperous chorus girl, for I look like one when I'm all dressed.

"I'm going to fight as far and as hard as I can and leave it to a fair judge. I have the name and I'm entitled to decent treatment."

"I got a rotten deal from the Belmonts. None of that sort of people ever treated a chorus girl right. Every time a millionaire married a chorus girl he deserted her. It always happens."

"Would you give your Belmont a divorce?"

"No," she replied with determination. "They can't get rid of me that easily. They haven't treated me right."

"If you ever get a lot of money you can establish a home for Homeless Chorus Girls Who Have Been Deserted by Their Millionaire Husbands."

"How can I do that? Say, you're kidding. I can't believe you have the guts to remember that I'm down here leading a quiet, private life. I don't want to be annoyed. I have a lot of stuff to tell you but I can't tell you the details of the case gets into court. I do what I please down here because it's quiet and the beach is private. I wear what I like. There's nobody to kick."

"Why last summer I used to go in bathing at Lake George in men's underwear," said Mrs. Belmont.

DECENT ALIMONY.

"I want to get some decent alimony. I have brought suit for a separation. I realize that Raymond is never coming back."

"And you love him still," asked the reporter.

"Yes, and no kid about that," she replied sweetly. "I want him back, but he isn't coming. So what's the use of talking about that?"

"What are you going to do?"

"I've done as much as I can at present," she replied. "After Raymond was taken away from me I was offered nothing. You'd be surprised at the figure."

PORT OF ENTRY QUESTION DECIDED

SAN FRANCISCO, July 29.—Although Oakland is to retain all of the custom's officials who are on duty and will not lose its identity in San Francisco as a port of entry, a communication received by Collector of the Port Station yesterday decided the point for all time. It showed that there were only three points of entry in this district, San Francisco, including Oakland, Suisun and Port Harford.

"I have been trying to have this matter decided for some time," said Stratton, "and I have not received the official word. However, this will not affect Oakland in any way as the same number of inspectors and the same business will be transacted there. I am now trying to secure two stenographers for my own office in the Mills building and I am certainly saving a lot of time. You know I am taking up my law practice again with my firm of Stratton, Kaufman and Tordella. I have advertised but I haven't been able to find anyone who will just suit me. I never knew that a tourist would prove such a problem before."

F. M. BENNETT WILL BE ADMITTED TO PROBATE

W. H. Bennett was today granted a petition to admit to probate the will of F. M. Bennett, the estate being one of the largest in the city. The will was signed by F. M. Bennett, an attorney, and was the value of the estate of $1,200,000. The will was signed by F. M. Bennett, an attorney, and was the value of the estate of $1,200,000.

LARGE FORCE IS ON THE MARCH

General Li Yuen-Heng Declares His Forces Can Deal With Revolt

Troops Are Dispatched to Reinforce Revolutionary Forces in South

PEKING, July 29 (5:30 p. m.).—The province of Hu-Nan seceded from the Peking government on July 25, according to consular reports just received here. The strength of the Hu-Nan forces at present on the border of the province of Hu-Poh is variously reported at from 1500 to 8000 men.

General Li Yuen-Heng, vice-president of the republic, who is conducting operations in central China from Wu-Chang, declared recently that his forces were capable of dealing with the revolt in both Kiang-Si and Hu-Nan, but today's reports announce the defection of a small body of troops on the Han river, above Wu Chang.

SEND REINFORCEMENTS.

ANOMY, China, July 29.—All the troops have been withdrawn from the interior in the northern part of the province of Fo-Kien and dispatched to reinforce the revolutionary southern forces at Nanking and Wu-Sung. Large numbers of volunteers for the southern army also are enrolling at Anomy. The situation at Fo-Chow has caused great uneasiness here.

IN REVOLUTION FAULTS.

LONDON, July 29.—The opinion is confidently expected, says the Times Peking correspondent, that the revolutionaries will be able to deal with the beaten. From all provinces which were supposed to have joined in the movement against President Yua Shi Kai protests have come declaring loyalty on the part of certain high officials and their cities. No southern reinforcements are known to have left Canton.

Woman Teaches 3 Children to Steal

LOS ANGELES, July 29.—The police today stumbled upon what they believe is a female thief. They found a woman with three adopted children, at least one of whom has proved to be a clever shop-lifter.

A 15-year-old girl was caught in a department store emptying the clerks' purses which had been tucked under the counters. Money had been missed for many days. She had crawled behind the counters.

The child gave her name as Blanche Boyle but refused to tell the police where she lived. By accident her home was located. The woman in charge of the house was found to have two other children, whom she admitted were not her own.

The case will be probed deeply by both the police and juvenile officers.

Troops on Guard When Mine Pumps Start

CALUMET, Mich., July 29.—More mine pumps started today on the shafts closed by the copper miners' strike, with state troops guarding the non-union employees.

Coincident with this work several commands of militia were ordered to the neighborhood, ostensibly to maneuver in a big field near the mines.

DROPS DEAD FROM HEART FAILURE
Butte County Grain Dealer Suc-
cumbs to Weakness While Transacting Business
A. A. Rutland, the wealthy hav and grain dealer of Nelson, Butte county, who dropped dead from heart failure, yesterday morning, while in the act of closing a deal for a 700-acre ranch in Napa county in the real estate office of the Dever-Hughes company on Broadway near Sixteenth street, was a native of Nashville, Tennessee. Rutland was a wealthy plantation owner and publisher of that city, and a staunch confederate.
A. A. Rutland came to California in 1885, first settling in Colusa and later in Marysville. In 1881 he went to Nelson, where he has remained ever since, although he owns a beautiful home in Piedmont.
Two sons, John W. and J. B. Rutland, and five daughters, Katherine M., Lella A., Sarah A., Mary E. and Rosa O. D. Rutland, survive the deceased man. Two grand children, Theodore Rutland White and Elizabeth Adele Rutland, also survive him. His funeral will be held, with all preliminary, tomorrow.

LEE ESTATE IS CLAIMED BY MANY
CHICAGO, July 29.—Hundreds of letters from all parts of the country were received by Public Administrator James F. Bishop today from persons endeavoring to claim relationship with William Henry Lee, the wealthy publisher, who died without leaving a will.
Lee's estate, which is estimated at $200,000, will revert to the state in 20 years unless it is claimed by relatives.
One report received by Mr. Bishop was that Lee was the son of a slave and fled from a southern plantation to St. Louis, when he was 12 years old, where he worked as a porter, waiter and laborer before coming to Chicago in 1877.

CLASSMATES RIVALS
FOR MISS CLEVELAND
BALTIMORE, Md., July 29.—The interesting information has come to Baltimore that Herman Stump and H. Gordon Princeton, Baltimore boys, classmates at Princeton, are rivals for the hand of Miss Evelyn Cleveland.
Both are about 21 years old. Evelyn's friends declare she has the better chance to gain the victory. While both young men have been guests at Miss Cleveland's home, Evelyn is still there, which leads the witnesses to pronounce that she will not be well with Stump's suit.
The disposition of both families is to be friendly, although it is admitted that the young men will have to invent some excuse to keep the interest alive.

GAILLARD SUFFERS
FROM BREAKDOWN
PANAMA, July 28.—Lieutenant Colonel David B. Gaillard, chief of the Central division of operations in the Panama Canal Zone, is suffering from a nervous breakdown and will probably be relieved of his duties by the United States government.

The nurse was continuing to work when the car was stopped at the intersection of Third and Broadway streets. It was found that the left limb was severed from the body. MOTOR VISITORS
TOUR FAIR SITE
San Francisco Delegation Is Showing Hoosiers the Sights
(By EDMUND CRINNION)
As the guests of the San Francisco motor car dealers association and the exposition officials, the visiting Indiana auto tourists are this afternoon, visiting the exposition grounds in San Francisco.
The auto trip of inspection will be followed by a supper at the St. Francis hotel this evening, a theater party and a midnight supper at one of San Francisco's cafes. The elaborate program for this evening has been provided by the San Francisco Motor Car Dealers Association under the leadership of E. P. Brinegar of the Pioneer Automobile Company.

of the San Francisco Commercial Club at the banquet rooms of the club and the program of entertainment, elaborate menu and brilliant lighting all served to make the evening one that will stand out most prominently among the program of entertainment that has been tendered the visitors so far.
The triumphant entry of the "Hoosiers" into the city of San Francisco yesterday marked the close of, as the visitors expressed it, "one of the best receptions ten-of entertainment provided by Oakland came to a close and Secretary A. A. Denison of the Chamber of Commerce, turned the visitors over to the San Francisco delegation as the ferry-boat approached the San Francisco side.
THE TRIBUNE-Chamber of Commerce official Buick escort car which piloted the visitors from Carson City to Oakland, carrying representatives of THE TRIBUNE and Chamber of Commerce continued with the party until the parade was ended last night in San Francisco.
The visitors spoke in glowing terms of Oakland and at yesterday's luncheon given in their honor at the Hotel Oakland, Secretary Denison was heartily applauded when he stated that he hoped the time would soon be here when the manufacturers of Indiana would be assembling cars in Oakland.
Among the visitors well known to the motorists of the coast is Ray McNamara—the modern Ezra Meeker—whose sole interest in life is found behind the wheel of a Premier. It was McNamara who found the transcontinental trail for the Premier's famous Ocean-to-Ocean tour two years ago. He led the way through deserts and mountain fastnesses on that, the most remarkable journey ever made by horseless vehicles. On every great national tour "Ray" has been the pilot and pace-maker. McNamara's ability as a road checker makes every participant in the present tour feel that they will safely cross deserts and mountains to the distant Pacific and then start the homeward way, back to the Eastland.

PELLETIER BUYS FLANDERS
The Pioneer Automobile Company has received information from Pontiac, Michigan, to the effect that E. LeRoy Pelletier, Don C. McCord and Dr. James B. Book, capitalist of Detroit, joined by other prominent capitalists, have purchased the Flanders factory and they will resume business at once. Their plan includes a revival of the beautiful little Flanders Electric, which was so popular here last year, and they will also produce a higher priced model. Under this new arrangement the company is well financed and it is predicted by knowing ones that within a very short time they will be turning out as many electric cars as any other manufacturer in the country.

UKIAH ASSEMBLYMAN
NAMED AS ATTORNEY
WASHINGTON, July 29.—From an official source it was learned yesterday that the attorney general is ready to name William J. Preston of Ukiah as the successor to former United States District Attorney McNab at San Francisco.
Preston has relatives of prominence in the Ukiah home state Tennessee and in addition has the backing of Congressman Kent.
Had not Preston been side tracked by the sudden taking up of T. M. Hayden when McNab resigned, it would probably have been appointed at that time.
Frank J. Gould of San Francisco, a candidate for the United States attorneyship, arrived in Washington today and is understood to already feel that his chances for the prize are remote. He says that he did not come for the purpose of pressing his candidacy, but that he has a land patent case pending and that his primary business here is to take this up with the Interior department.
Incidentally he will try to land the San Francisco office, but apparently has arrived too late.

PROMINENT MEN ARE NAMED ON NEW BOARD
WILMINGTON, Del., July 29.—Governor Miller yesterday appointed six commissioners for Delaware to the Panama-Pacific International Exposition. The body is the most representative ever named to represent this state. Under the terms of the bill passed by the last legislature creating the commission, the governor will be chairman, and secretary of State Thomas W. Miller, his son, will be secretary.
The commissioners are Thomas F. Bayard, Democratic state chairman of the late American Association, and Henry P. Scott, millionaire banker, both of Wilmington; ex-Congressman Walter O. Huffer and Benjamin A. Hazel, both of Smyrna; ex-Governor Simon S. Hennessee of Greenwood, and James J. Ross, a wealthy agriculturalist of Seaford.
The governor is a Republican, but in selecting the commission he named three Republicans and as many Democrats. The commissioners will serve without pay. They have a preliminary appropriation of $1000 to arrange a Delaware exhibit.

TENDER OF LIGHTSHIPS
WRECKED BY LINER
NEW YORK, July 29.—The tender of the government light ship off Cape Lookout, N.C., was cut in two by the steamer Line steamship City of Atlanta, and three of its five occupants were drowned Friday afternoon, according to statements made here by the Coast Guard.
The other two men were rescued by a boat from the steamer. The little tender was crossing the Narrows' bow to deliver mail and papers when the ship crashed into the bow.

TWO WOMEN ACCUSED OF GRAND LARCENY
SAN FRANCISCO, July 29.—Two women, aged 35 and 40, were charged with grand larceny in the Superior court today. The women were accused of stealing a large quantity of clothing and jewelry from a store in the city. The case is set for trial next week.

TWO FIGHTS WITH USUAL RESULTS
Emergency Hospital Treatment for Charles Ashton and H. Swanson
Two fist fights made work for Steward James Cone at the Emergency hospital last night. Charles Ashton, a laborer, came in after a night of celebration, with a well lacerated nose. "I don't know how it happened, Doc," he declared. "All I know is, I was hit by the enemy!" "Well," said Cone, "the enemy did a good job." Peroxide and bandages were applied. H. Swanson objected to a neighbor stealing his blackberries in strong language.
"Take off your glasses," said the neighbor. Swanson did so, and as a result came to the hospital with a black eye for treatment. "I wonder why he asked me to take off my glasses," he said. Cone explained that to hit a man with glasses on is a state's prison offense. "Next time," said Swanson, "my glasses stay on."

SCHOOL BUDGET
IS OVER MILLION
Oakland Department Figures to Be Prepared at Committee Session
More than one million dollars will be needed for Oakland's school department for the coming fiscal year. Tomorrow night the budget will be totaled and official detailed figures prepared, when the board of education will meet at a special committee session to prepare its estimates for submission to the board of supervisors. The budget will include equipment and furnishings for new schools, fuel, light and accessories, as well as salaries and the cost of school administration.

BLOOMER BATHING
SKIRTS ALL RIGHT
CHICAGO, July 29.—Chicago club-women are to fight the law forbidding women to wear bloomer bathing costumes. They have as an impetus today's decision of Judge Gemmill that women's bathing suits are permissible. The decision was given in the case of Dr. Rosalie M. Ladova arrested yesterday for plunging into the lake in bloomers, waist, stockings and cap.
"Men go about the beaches half naked but no one bothers them," said Dr. Ladova when arraigned today. "Women are arrested when they are fully clothed." The court agreed with Dr. Ladova that the rule was unjust.

SHEEP TO PERFORM
WORK OF WEEDERS
CHICO, July 29.—Sheep are to do the work heretofore performed by a small army of men and boys. A flock of about 1000 sheep will be turned loose in the hop fields at Nord and Bover, owned by the Fraser Hop company.
These sheep are expected to clear the acreage of weeds and troublesome vine-suckers that are giving great concern to the hop men.
It is declared that the sheep will rid the fields of foreign growths more readily and effectively than human agency can, and that the hops will not be damaged by them.
